PART III
Skills Training Benefit

DIVISION I
Assessment

Determination of skills training benefit

7(1) The minister shall consider all of the factors set out in this Part in order to determine the monthly amount to be paid to a person as a skills training benefit.

(2) When considering whether a person requires a skills training benefit and the monthly amount of that skills training benefit, the minister shall first consider only funding the incremental costs necessary for the person to pursue the program that is set out in that person's action plan after an initial assessment of:

- (a) the person's resources; and
- (b) the amount of the necessary incremental costs associated with the program that the person will pursue.

(3) If, following the consideration and assessment made pursuant to subsection (2), the minister determines that more than the amount of the incremental costs necessary for a person to pursue a program are necessary, the minister may determine an amount to be paid to a person as a skills training benefit that exceeds the amount of the person's necessary incremental costs as determined pursuant to subsection (2).

29 Jan 99 cG-5.1 Reg 85 s7; 5 Sep 2008 SR
76/2008 s6.

Need

8(1) The minister shall take the expenditures set out in subsection (2) into account when determining the incremental costs necessary for a person to pursue that person's program.

- (2) A person's expenditures are to be determined using the following criteria:
- (a) the actual cost of tuition or fees required to commence or complete a program that is set out in the person's action plan;
 - (b) the actual cost of any books, materials or supplies necessary to complete a program that is set out in the person's action plan;
 - (c) the actual cost of any service or equipment necessary for a person with a permanent disability to complete a program that is set out in the person's action plan;
 - (d) the monthly cost of transportation necessary to complete a program that is set out in the person's action plan;
 - (e) the size of the person's family and his or her particular circumstances;
 - (f) the monthly cost for shelter, including basic utilities, and where applicable maintenance or repair costs;
 - (g) any other miscellaneous costs.
- (3) If a person is receiving financial assistance for a basic education program pursuant to The Training Allowance Regulations, that person is only eligible for the following:
- (a) the actual cost of tuition or fees required to commence or complete a program that is set out in the person's action plan;
 - (b) the actual cost of any books, materials or supplies necessary to complete a program that is set out in the person's action plan;

29 Jan 99 cG-5.1 Reg 85 s8; 7 Apr 2000
SR 20/2000 s6; 21 Feb 2003 SR 8/2003 s5.

Change in circumstances

9(1) No person who is receiving a skills training benefit shall fail to immediately notify the minister of any change in circumstances that might affect:

- (a) that person's continued eligibility to receive a skills training benefit;
- (b) the amount of that person's skills training benefit; or
- (c) that person's ongoing need for a skills training benefit.

(2) After receiving information that there has been a change in circumstances relating to a person who is receiving a skills training benefit, the minister may vary the amount of or cancel the person's skills training benefit.

(3) If a person fails to comply with subsection (1), the minister may:

- (a) vary the amount of or cancel the person's skills training benefit; and
- (b) declare any skills training benefit payment, or any portion of any skills training benefit payment, made after the date of the change in circumstances an overpayment.

29 Jan 99 cG-5.1 Reg 85 s9.

DIVISION II
Categories of individuals

Single person

10 A person is in the single person category if the person:

- (a) has no spouse or is separated from his or her spouse; and
- (b) does not meet the criteria set out in section 11.

29 Jan 99 cG-5.1 Reg 85 s10.

Single parent

11 A person is in the single parent category if:

- (a) the person:
 - (i) has no spouse; or
 - (ii) is separated from his or her spouse; and
- (b) the person is the legal custodian of an unmarried child who is under 19 years of age who resides for at least 15 days per month with the person receiving the skills training benefit.

29 Jan 99 cG-5.1 Reg 85 s11; 21 Feb 2003 SR
8/2003 s6.

Married person

12 A person is in the married person category if the person:

- (a) has a spouse; and
- (b) is not separated from his or her spouse.

29 Jan 99 cG-5.1 Reg 85 s12.

DIVISION III
Determination of resources

Resources

13(1) When determining a person's need for a skills training benefit and the resources that are available to the person, the minister, where appropriate, may consider any of the following:

- (a) the person's monthly income;
 - (b) the person's spouse's monthly income;
 - (c) any income source mentioned in subsection (2);
 - (d) the person's assets;
 - (e) the person's spouse's assets.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) income sources include:
- (a) employment, including salaries, wages, fees, commissions, royalties, drawings, bonuses, tips and gratuities, realized taxable employment benefits, and holiday, vacation, retroactive, overtime, shift differential and severance pay;
 - (b) self-employment, in which case income is considered as income minus operating expenses;
 - (c) survivors, old age security, guaranteed income supplement, Canada Pension Plan and disabled persons' benefits;
 - (d) spousal alimony or maintenance payments;
 - (e) child support;
 - (f) rental income, in which case income is considered as income minus operating expenses;
 - (g) investment income that is taxable;
 - (h) student loans;
 - (i) scholarships and bursaries;
 - (j) all other income received for educational or training purposes;
 - (k) payments made pursuant to Part VIII of The Automobile Accident Insurance Act or the regulations made for the purposes of that Part;

- (l) payments pursuant to The Workers' Compensation Act, 1979;
- (m) employment insurance benefits;
- (n) orphan's benefits;
- (o) disabled child benefits;
- (p) assistance paid pursuant to The Saskatchewan Assistance Regulations, being Saskatchewan Regulations 78/66;
- (q) the SES benefit paid pursuant to The Employment Supplement Regulations;
- (r) the Canada Child Tax Benefit provided for pursuant to section 122.61 of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
- (s) the National Child Benefit Supplement that is the amount C in the formula set out in section 122.61 of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
- (t) the Saskatchewan Child benefit paid pursuant to The Child Benefit Regulations;
- (t.1) payments made by the Canada Revenue Agency pursuant to the Universal Child Care Benefit Act (Canada);
- (u) any other income source.

29 Jan 99 cG-5.1 Reg 85 s13; 16 Jne 99
SR 47/1999 s5; 5 Sep 2008 SR 76/2008 s7.

Assets

- 14(1) In determining a person's resources pursuant to section 13, where the minister considers it appropriate:
- (a) the assets of the person and the person's spouse are to be counted, notwithstanding that an asset may be held solely in the name of the spouse; and
 - (b) the fair market value of the assets is to be determined after taking into account any encumbrance, debt or other liability pertaining to the assets.
- (2) When considering a person's assets, the minister shall not include:
- (a) the person's principal residence;
 - (b) one motor vehicle.

29 Jan 99 cG-5.1 Reg 85 s14.

DIVISION IV Allowances

Living allowance

15(1) The following persons are to be counted when determining the number of people in a family unit:

- (a) single person, $1,008;
- (b) single parent, $1,350;
- (c) married person, $1,962 per couple.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the following monthly amounts are the maximum amounts allowed for shelter, food and miscellaneous costs for the categories of persons set out in sections 10 to 12:

- (a) single person, $907;
- (b) single parent, $1,169;
- (c) married person, $1,762 per couple.

(2.1) Subject to subsection (3), the maximum amount allowed for transportation for the categories of persons set out in sections 10 to 12 is $304.

(3) Amounts above those set out in subsections (2) and (2.1) are allowed if the minister approves an exemption request in accordance with section 18.
