PART XII.1
Civil Liability

Exemption from liability

173.1(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who or company that purchases or sells securities of a reporting issuer with knowledge of a material fact or material change with respect to the reporting issuer that has not been generally disclosed is exempt from subsection 85(3) of the Act and from liability under section 142 of the Act, where the person or company proves that:

- (a) no director, officer, partner, employee or agent of the person or company who made or participated in making the decision to purchase or sell the securities of the reporting issuer had actual knowledge of the material fact or material change; and
 - (b) no advice was given with respect to the purchase or sale of the securities to the director, officer, partner, employee or agent of the person or company who made or participated in making the decision to purchase or sell the securities by a director, partner, officer, employee or agent of the person or company who had actual knowledge of the material fact or the material change.
- (2) The exemption mentioned in subsection (1) is not available to an individual who had actual knowledge of the material fact or material change.
- (3) A person who or company that purchases or sells securities of a reporting issuer with knowledge of a material fact or material change with respect to the reporting issuer that has not been generally disclosed is exempt from subsection 85(3) of the Act and from liability under section 142 of the Act, where the person or company proves that:
- (a) the purchase or sale was entered into as agent of another person or company pursuant to a specific unsolicited order from that other person or company to purchase or sell;
 - (b) the purchase or sale was made pursuant to the participation in an automatic dividend reinvestment plan, share purchase plan or other similar automatic plan that was entered into by the person or company prior to the acquisition of knowledge of the material fact or material change; or
 - (c) the purchase or sale was made to fulfil a legally binding obligation entered into by the person or company prior to the acquisition of knowledge of the material fact or material change.
- (4) In determining whether a person or company has met the burden of proof pursuant to this section, the court shall consider whether and to what extent the person or company has implemented and maintained reasonable policies and procedures to:
- (a) prevent contraventions of subsection 85(3) of the Act by persons making or influencing investment decisions on its behalf; and
 - (b) prevent transmission of information concerning a material fact or material change contrary to subsections 85(4) and (5) of the Act.

(5) A person or company who purchases or sells a security of a reporting issuer as agent or trustee for a person or company who is exempt from subsection 85(3) of the Act and from liability under section 142 of the Act by reason of clause(2)(b) or (c), is also exempt from subsection 85(3) of the Act and from liability under section 142 of the Act.

(6) A person or company is exempt from subsection 85(3), (4) and (5) of the Act where the person or company proves that the person or company reasonably believed that, as the case may be:

- (a) the other party to a purchase or sale of securities had knowledge of the material fact or material change; or
- (b) the person or company that was informed of the material fact or material change within the meaning of subsection 83(5) of the Act had knowledge of the material fact or material change.

14 Dec 2001 SR 91/2001 s32.

PART XII.2

Civil Liability for Secondary Market Disclosure

Interpretation of Part

173.2 In this Part, “equity security” has the same meaning as set out in clause 2(1)(s) of the Act.

22 Feb 2008 SR 3/2008 s9.

Interpretation of Part XVIII.1 of the Act

173.3 For the purposes of Part XVIII.1 of the Act:

- (a) “market capitalization” means, in respect of an issuer, the amount determined as follows:
 - (i) for each class of equity securities for which there is a published market, determine the sum of the number of outstanding securities of the class at the close of trading on each of the 10 trading days before the day on which the misrepresentation was made or the failure to make timely disclosure first occurred;
 - (ii) divide the sum determined under subclause (i) by 10;
 - (iii) multiply the quotient determined under subclause (ii) for each class by the trading price of the securities of the class on the principal market for the securities for the 10 trading days before the day on which the misrepresentation was made or the failure to make timely disclosure first occurred;
 - (iv) add the amounts determined under subclause (iii) for each class of equity securities for which there is a published market;
 - (v) for each class of equity securities not traded on a published market, determine the fair market value of the outstanding securities of that class as of the day on which the misrepresentation was made or the failure to make timely disclosure first occurred;

(vi) add the amounts determined under subclause (v) for each class of equity securities not traded on a public market;

(vii) add the amount determined under subclause (iv) to the amount determined under subclause (vi) to determine the market capitalization of the issuer;

(b) “principal market” means, in respect of a class of securities of a responsible issuer:

(i) the published market in Canada on which the greatest volume of trading in securities of that class occurred during the 10 trading days before the day on which the misrepresentation was made or the failure to make timely disclosure first occurred; or

(ii) the published market on which the greatest volume of trading in securities of that class occurred during the 10 trading days before the day on which the misrepresentation was made or the failure to make timely disclosure first occurred, if securities of that class are not traded during those 10 days on a published market in Canada;

(c) “trading price” means, in respect of a security of a class of securities for which there is a published market, the amount determined under the following provisions:

(i) subject to subclauses (ii) and (iii), the trading price of the security is the volume weighted average price of securities of that class on the published market during the period for which the trading price is to be determined;

(ii) subject to subclause (iii), if there was trading in the securities of that class in the published market on fewer than half of the trading days during the period for which the trading price of the securities is to be determined, the trading price of the security is determined as follows:

(A) calculate the sum of the average of the highest bid and lowest ask prices for each trading day in the period on which there were no trades in securities of that class in the published market;

(B) divide the amount determined under paragraph (A) by the number of trading days on which there were no trades in securities of that class in the published market;

(C) add to the amount determined under paragraph (B) the volume weighted average price of securities of that class on the published market for those trading days on which securities of that class were traded;

(D) divide by two the amount determined under paragraph (C);

(iii) if there were no trades of securities of that class in the published market during the period for which the trading price is to be determined, the trading price of the security is the fair market value of the security.

Application of Part XVIII.1 of the Act

173.4(1) For the purposes of clause 136.1(b) of the Act, Part XVIII.1 of the Act applies to the acquisition of an issuer's security pursuant to the exemption from section 58 of the Act provided by section 2.8 of National Instrument 45-102 Resale of Securities.

(2) For the purposes of clause 136.1(c) of the Act, Part XVIII.1 of the Act applies to the acquisition or disposition of an issuer's security in connection with or pursuant to:

- (a) a take-over bid that is described in section 4.1 or 4.5 of Multilateral Instrument 62-104 Take-over Bids and Issuer Bids; or
- (b) issuer bid that is described in subsection 4.8(2) or (3) or section 4.11 of Multilateral Instrument 62-104 Take-over Bids and Issuer Bids.

22 Feb 2008 SR 3/2008 s9.

PART XIII Enforcement

Warrants

174 The endorsement of a warrant by a provincial judge or justice of the peace for Saskatchewan provided for by section 132 of the Act shall be completed in accordance with Form 37.

10 Nov 88 cS-42.2 Reg 1 s174.

PART XIV General Provisions

Execution and certification of documents

175 Except as otherwise provided in Saskatchewan securities laws:

- (a) every document required or permitted to be filed with the Commission by an individual that is required to be signed or certified shall:
 - (i) be manually signed; and
 - (ii) include below the signature the name of the individual in typewritten or printed form;
- (b) subject to clause (c), every document required or permitted to be filed with the Commission by a company or person, other than an individual, that is required to be signed or certified shall:
 - (i) be manually signed by an officer or director of the company or person or, subject to clause (d), by the attorney or agent of that person or company; and

- (ii) include below the signature the name of the officer, director, attorney or agent in a typewritten or printed form;
- (c) where a partner signs or certifies on behalf of a professional partnership, the partner is not required to sign his name but if an individual other than a partner signs or certifies:
 - (i) the individual shall sign his name manually; and
 - (ii) the name of the individual shall be included below his signature in typewritten or printed form; and
- (d) where a document required or permitted to be filed with the Commission by an individual, company or person, has been executed by an attorney or agent of the individual, company or person, a duly completed power of attorney or document of authority authorizing the signing of the document shall be filed with the document unless the Director permits the filing of the document without the power of attorney or document of authority.
