- “(2) On the registration of an interest pursuant to subsection (1):
- (a) the corporation has a lien against the title for an amount that is equal to:
 - (i) the amount of the unpaid contribution; and
 - (ii) any costs incurred in preparing and registering the interest and in preparing and registering a discharge of the interest; and
 - (b) the lien may be enforced in the same manner as a mortgage”.

New section 6528 Section 65 is repealed and the following substituted:*“Duty to insure

65(1) In this section, ‘developed bare land unit’ means a bare land unit on which any of the following is constructed:

- (a) a building used for residential purposes and containing more than one unit;
 - (b) a series of buildings used for residential purposes that share common load-bearing walls and continuous roofing.
- (2) The corporation shall obtain and maintain insurance on its own behalf and on behalf of the owners with respect to the units, other than improvements that are made or acquired by owners with respect to units, the common property, the common facilities and services units:
- (a) against major perils in an amount equal to the replacement cost of the insured property; and
 - (b) against any other perils that are specified in the bylaws of the corporation or directed by the board.
- (3) What constitutes an improvement made or acquired by an owner with respect to a unit is to be determined in accordance with the standard unit description, if any, for that unit or the class of units of which the unit is a member.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (2), except as may be required by a contrary provision contained in the bylaws, a corporation may, but is not obliged to, obtain and maintain insurance on:
- (a) bare land units other than developed bare land units; or
 - (b) buildings or improvements placed on bare land units other than developed bare land units.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), if an insurance policy obtained by the corporation in accordance with this section contains a deductible clause that limits the amount payable by the insurer, the portion of a loss that is excluded from coverage is a common expense.

- (6) If the owner of a unit, or a person residing in the owner's unit with the permission or knowledge of the owner, through an act or omission causes damage to a unit, the amount determined pursuant to subsection (7) may be added to the common expenses payable by the owner of that unit.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), the amount is the lesser of:
- (a) the cost of repairing the damage to the unit; and
 - (b) the deductible limit of the insurance policy obtained by the corporation.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, the corporation is deemed to have an insurable interest in the replacement value of units, including developed bare land units, the common property, the common facilities and the services units.
- (9) The corporation shall obtain and maintain:
- (a) insurance against its liability:
 - (i) arising from its breach of duty as occupier of the common property, common facilities or services units;
 - (ii) arising from its ownership, or arising from the use or operation, by it or on its behalf, of boilers, machinery, pressure vessels and motor vehicles;
 - (iii) incurred by a member of the board or an officer of the corporation arising out of any act or omission of the member or officer with respect to carrying out the functions and duties of the member or officer unless it is shown that the member or officer acted in bad faith; and
 - (iv) incurred by it arising out of any act or omission of a member of the board or an officer of the corporation with respect to carrying out the functions and duties of the member or officer; and
 - (b) any other insurance that is specified in the bylaws of the corporation or directed by the board.
- (10) For the purposes of this section, the corporation is deemed to have an insurable interest in the subject-matter of the insurance.
- (11) The corporation must:
- (a) annually review the adequacy of the corporation's insurance obtained in accordance with this section; and
 - (b) provide a written report on the insurance coverage at each annual general meeting.

(12) A policy of insurance authorized by this section and taken out by a corporation with respect to the buildings, fixtures on land, or landscaping is not liable to be brought into contribution with any other policy of insurance except a policy authorized by this section with respect to the same buildings or land.

(13) Nothing in this section is to be construed as restricting the capacity of a corporation, an owner or any other person from obtaining and maintaining insurance with respect to any insurable interest”.

New section 70

29 Section 70 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Transfer or lease of common property or services unit

70(1) On unanimous resolution, a corporation may transfer or lease the common property or a services unit or any part of either to any person.

(2) The corporation shall execute a transfer or lease of common property or a services unit if the board is satisfied that:

- (a) a unanimous resolution was properly passed; and
- (b) all persons who have registered interests on the titles:
 - (i) in the case of a transfer, have consented in writing to the release of those interests with respect to the land in the proposed transfer; or
 - (ii) in the case of a lease, have consented in writing to the execution of the proposed lease.

(3) A transfer or lease executed in accordance with subsection (2) is valid and effective without execution by any person who has an interest in the common property or services unit.

(4) The receipt of the corporation for the purchase money, rent, premiums or other moneys pursuant to the terms of a transfer or lease executed in accordance with subsection (2) discharges the person to whom the receipt is given from any responsibility for the application of those moneys.

(5) This section does not apply to parking spaces that become parking units pursuant to subsection 11(7)”.

Section 70.1 amended

30 Section 70.1 is amended by adding “a new plan of survey,” after “pursuant to section 71,”.

Section 71 amended

31(1) Subsection 71(2) is repealed and the following substituted:

(2) Subsection 71(3) is amended by striking out the portion preceding clause (a) and substituting the following:

“On the receipt of an application pursuant to subsection (1) and if a new plan was approved by the Controller of Surveys pursuant to section 70.1, the registrar shall:”.

(3) The following subsection is added after subsection 71(3):

“(4) On receipt of an application pursuant to subsection (1) and if an amendment to an existing plan was approved by the Controller of Surveys pursuant to section 70.1, the registrar shall:

- (a) issue to the transferee a title for the common property or services unit being transferred; and
- (b) register in the prescribed manner any interests affecting all units against any new titles to units that were formerly services units issued pursuant to clause (a)”.

Section 71.1 amended

32 Section 71.1 is amended by repealing subsection (5) and substituting the following:

“(5) An interest based on a lease of common property authorized pursuant to section 70 must be registered against the titles issued pursuant to the condominium plan.

“(6) An interest based on a lease of a services unit authorized pursuant to section 70 must be registered against title to the services unit affected by the lease”.

Section 77 amended

33 Clause 77(2)(a) is amended by striking out “common property or common facilities” and substituting “common property, common facilities or services units”.

New section 79.1

34 The following section is added after section 79:

“Damage amount more than deposit

79.1(1) If the amount of the damage caused by a person residing in or on a rented unit is more than the deposit collected pursuant to section 77, the corporation may recover from the owner of the rented unit any amount in excess of the value of the deposit required to maintain, repair or replace:

- (a) any real or personal property of the corporation or any of the common property, common facilities or services units that are damaged, destroyed, lost or removed by a person residing in or on the rented unit; or
- (b) any of the common property for which an owner is permitted to exercise exclusive use pursuant to section 72 that is damaged, destroyed, lost or removed by a person residing in or on the rented unit.

(2) The owner may recover from the tenant any amount paid by the owner pursuant to subsection (1).

(3) The amount recoverable pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) is the lesser of:

- (a) the cost of repairing the damage or replacing the property described in clauses (1)(a) and (b); and
- (b) the deductible limit of the insurance policy obtained by the corporation”.

Section 82 amended

35 The following clause is added after clause 82(1)(c):

“(d) recover any amount pursuant to section 79.1”.

New section 93

36 Section 93 is repealed and the following substituted:“Assessment of parcel

93(1) In this section and in section 97:

- (a) ‘parcel’ includes improvements;
- (b) ‘unit’ includes:
 - (i) the owner’s share of the common property;
 - (ii) in the case of a unit used for residential purposes, any parking unit or parking space designated pursuant to section 11; and
 - (iii) in the case of a bare land unit, the improvements to the unit.

(2) Notwithstanding the assessing Act or any other Act, if the Saskatchewan Assessment Management Agency or any other assessing authority causes a parcel to be assessed pursuant to an assessing Act, a separate assessment must be made of each unit except parking units designated pursuant to section 11”.

Section 97 amended

37(1) The following subsection is added after subsection 97(3):

“(3.1) In proceedings to obtain title pursuant to The Tax Enforcement Act, title to a parking unit designated to a unit used for residential purposes may only be obtained together with the unit to which it is designated pursuant to section 11”.

(2) Subsection 97(4) is repealed and the following substituted:

“(4) For the purposes of this section, a reference in an Act mentioned in subsection (1), (3) or (3.1) to ‘land’, ‘lot’ or ‘parcel’ is deemed to be a reference to a unit”.

Section 99 amended

38 Subsection 99(1) is repealed and the following substituted:

“(1) If an owner, tenant or other person who resides in or on a unit contravenes a bylaw of the corporation, the corporation may take proceedings pursuant to The Small Claims Act, 1997 to recover from the owner, tenant or other person or any combination of them:

- (a) a penalty of not more than $500 with respect to that contravention; and

- (b) subject to the limits in The Small Claims Act, 1997:
 - (i) compensation for any damage to the common property, common facilities or services units resulting from the contravention of the bylaw up to the deductible limit of the insurance policy obtained by the corporation; and
 - (ii) any actual costs incurred by the corporation to enforce the bylaw against the defendant”.

New sections 99.1, 99.2 and 99.3

39 The following sections are added after section 99:

“Order to fulfil duties

99.1(1) One or more owner, tenant, mortgagee or other interested person may apply to the court for an order directing a condominium corporation or a board to fulfil its duties set out in sections 35 and 39.

(2) On an application pursuant to subsection (1), the judge may make any order the judge considers appropriate, including:

- (a) an order prohibiting the conduct mentioned in the application;
- (b) an order directing the corporation or board to fulfil its duty; and
- (c) an order requiring the payment of compensation.

“Oppression remedy

99.2(1) An owner, a corporation, a developer, a tenant, a mortgagee of a unit or other interested person may apply to the court for an order if the applicant alleges that the conduct of an owner, a tenant, a corporation, a developer or a mortgagee of a unit is or threatens to be oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to the applicant or unfairly disregards the interests of the applicant.

(2) On an application pursuant to subsection (1), if the judge determines that the conduct of an owner, a tenant, a corporation, a developer or a mortgagee of a unit is or threatens to be oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to the applicant or unfairly disregards the interests of the applicant, the judge may make any order the judge considers appropriate, including:

- (a) an order prohibiting the conduct alleged in the application; and
- (b) an order requiring the payment of compensation.

“Other remedies

99.3 Unless this Act specifically provides the contrary, nothing in this Act restricts the remedies otherwise available to a person for the failure of another to perform a duty imposed by this Act”.

Section 104 amended

40 Clause 104(2)(c) is repealed and the following substituted:

“(c) if the owner has not provided an address pursuant to section 75, at the address shown in the land titles registry for the title to the unit”.

Section 112 amended

41 Section 112 is amended:(a) by adding the following clause after clause (b):

“(b.1) for the purposes of clause 2(1)(z.01), prescribing the content, form and other requirements for a standard unit description”;

(b) by adding the following after clause (e):

“(e.001) for the purposes of subsection 10(5), prescribing the level of available rental accommodation and additional conditions that the local authority must consider before issuing a certificate of approval”;

(c) by adding the following clauses after clause (h.2):

“(h.3) for the purposes of clause 35(2)(d), prescribing any returns to be submitted to the Director and the required content and form of those returns;

“(h.4) for the purposes of subsection 39(3), prescribing persons authorized to audit financial statements of condominium corporations;

“(h.5) prescribing circumstances when a corporation is not required to prepare and provide audited financial statements pursuant to clause 39(2)(b) and subsection 39(3)”;

(d) by adding the following clauses after clause (j.1):

“(j.11) respecting the approval processes required to create, amend or repeal bylaws governing certain matters;

“(j.12) for the purposes of clauses 47(1)(g.1) and (g.2), prescribing the maximum amount that may be charged by the corporation and any other limitation respecting the charging of fees”; and

(e) by repealing clause (p) and substituting the following:

“(p) prescribing the format, content and manner of use of forms mentioned in or required by this Act”.

Coming into force

42 This Act comes into force on proclamation.
