CHAPTER 49

An Act to incorporate The Yorkton Club

(Assented to April 3, 1907)

Preamble

WHEREAS the persons hereinafter named and others in the town of Yorkton, province of Saskatchewan and vicinity have associated themselves together for the establishment of a club for social purposes;

And whereas the said persons hereinafter named have prayed to be incorporated by the name of The Yorkton Club of the town of Yorkton in the province of Saskatchewan and it is expedient to grant their prayer;

Therefore His Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

Incorporation

1 George F. Laing, William R. Parsons, John F. Irving, Joseph A. Magee, James B. Gibson, William D. Dunlop, Henry R. R. Nepvean, John T. Hall, Samuel Rickard, Edward L. Cash, Robert W. Worsley, James A. Peaker, Edward Hopkins, Rowland Snell, Clarence M. Henry, William J. Lowes, Thomas W. Cladwell, Francis W. Bull, John A. Snell, Stephen B. Stonehouse and all such other persons as are now or hereinafter shall become members of the said association shall be and are hereby declared to be a body corporate and politic in deed and in name by the name of "The Yorkton Club" and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and shall have power from time to time and at all times hereafter be able and capable to purchase, acquire, hold, possess and enjoy and to have, take and receive to them and their successors and to and for the actual use of the said corporation any personal property, lands, tenements and real and immovable property and estate situate, lying and being within the said town of Yorkton; and the same to sell, alienate, exchange and otherwise dispose of or incumber whensoever the said corporation shall deem it proper so to do and by the same name shall and may be capable to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto it any matter whatsoever.

1907, c. 49, s. 1.

Constitution, rules and regulations

2 The constitution, rules and regulations touching the administration of the said corporation shall be formulated at a general meeting thereof called for that purpose and of which at least ten days' notice shall have been given by public advertisement or otherwise to all members thereof; and the constitution, rules and regulations then adopted shall have full force and effect in so far as the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws in force in the province of Saskatchewan and the provisions of this Act;

Provided always that the said corporation may from time to time alter, repeal and change such constitution, rules and regulations in the manner therein provided.

1907, c. 49, s. 2.

Borrowing power

3 The said corporation may from time to time borrow money not to exceed in the whole the sum of $25,000 at such rate of interest and upon such terms as they may deem proper and may for such purpose make, execute and issue any mortgages, bonds, debentures or other instruments under the seal of the said corporation.

1907, c. 49, s. 3.

Execution of mortgages

4 Any such mortgage, bond, debenture or other instrument shall be signed by the president or vice president of the said corporation and countersigned by the secretary.

1907, c. 49, s. 4.

Application of moneys borrowed

5 The moneys authorised to be raised under the provisions of section 3 of this Ordinance shall be applied exclusively in the purchase of a site for the club buildings and in the purchase, improvement or erection of a club house and dependencies thereon together with necessary furniture or for the purchase of any freehold interest therein and in the payment of any mortgage or charge thereon and for the redemption of the said debentures and reissues as they become due respectively from time to time and at all times.

1907, c. 49, s. 5.

Members not liable for debts of club

6 No member of the corporation shall be in any way liable for or chargeable with the payment of any debt or demand due by the said corporation beyond the extent of the entrance fee and annual subscription remaining unpaid by said member and for any unpaid accounts he may have incurred to the corporation for articles ordered by him in the said club or other indebtedness to the club; and any member of the said club not so indebted to the said corporation may retire therefrom and will cease to be a member on giving notice to that effect in such form as may be required by the constitution, rules and regulations of the said club and thenceforth shall be free from liability for any debt or engagement of the corporation.

1907, c. 49, s. 6.

Bill of exchange

7 The said corporation shall have power to draw, make, accept and indorse all cheques, bills of exchange and promissory notes necessary for the purpose of the said corporation under the hands of the president or vice president and secretary thereof after authority of the said corporation so to do; and in no case shall it be necessary that the seal of the corporation be affixed to any such bill of exchange, cheques or note nor shall the president, vice president or secretary be individually liable or responsible therefor:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorise the corporation to issue notes or bills of exchange payable to bearer or intended to be circulated as money or as notes or bills of a bank.

1907, c. 49, s. 7.

Power to lease

8 Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained the said corporation shall have power to lease any portion of the real estate held by the said corporation upon such terms and for such periods as may be agreed upon.

1907, c. 49, s. 8.

Short title

9 This Act may be cited as "The Yorkton Club Act".
