5 Sep 2008 SR 77/2008 s9; 17 Mar 2017 SR 22/2017 s9.

PART VIII General

Exemptions

- 36 The minister may exempt an applicant or participant from any requirement set out in these regulations if, in the opinion of the minister:
- (a) one or more of the following applies:
 - (i) the non-compliance is due to a factor beyond the control of the applicant or participant;
 - (ii) the non-compliance is with respect to a minor detail;
 - (iii) the applicant or participant has proposed or agreed to other conditions that meet or exceed the conditions with respect to which there is non-compliance;

- (b) the applicant or participant is substantially in compliance with the requirements of these regulations;
- (c) in the case of a project proposed by an applicant, the project proposed by the applicant meets the purposes of the program for which the application is submitted; and
- (d) it is not contrary to the public interest to grant the exemption.

26 Sep 2003 cD-22.01 Reg 1 s36.

Minister may limit or increase financial assistance

37(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, if the minister considers it to be appropriate, the minister may do both or either of the following:

- (a) limit the amount of financial assistance provided to any applicant;
- (b) limit a program to a region or area of Saskatchewan.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, the minister may provide financial assistance to an applicant with respect to an approved project in an amount that is greater than the limit set in these regulations for that type of approved project if:

- (a) the applicant presents evidence to satisfy the minister that the costs of the approved project are reasonable and appropriate and that the approved project meets an important need; and
- (b) the minister considers it to be in the public interest to provide the greater amount of financial assistance.

26 Sep 2003 cD-22.01 Reg 1 s37.

Information required for payment

38(1) An applicant who wishes to obtain a payment with respect to an approved project shall:

- (a) apply to the minister in a form acceptable to the minister;
- (b) provide the minister with the evidence mentioned in subsections (2) and (3); and
- (c) provide the minister with any additional information or documents that the minister may require to establish that the applicant is entitled to the payment in the amount requested by the applicant.

(2) Before making any payment to an applicant pursuant to these regulations, the minister may require that the applicant provide the minister with evidence, satisfactory to the minister, to prove that:

- (a) the terms and conditions set out in these regulations and in the written agreement between the applicant and the minister have been complied with; and
- (b) the expenditure with respect to which the payment is to be made has been incurred.

- (3) If a payment is to be made to subsidize the wage or salary or mandatory employer costs related to hiring a participant, the minister may require an applicant to provide the minister with evidence, satisfactory to the minister, to prove that:
- (a) the participant was working or in attendance at the position for which the payment is to be made; and
 - (b) the participant was paid all wages or salaries due to the participant for which a payment is to be made.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (3):
- (a) if the minister is authorized pursuant to these regulations or an agreement to make an interim payment to an applicant, the minister may make an interim payment in any amount that is authorized or that the minister considers appropriate, but no applicant is entitled to a final payment until the evidence mentioned in those subsections has been provided to the minister; or
 - (b) if the minister considers it appropriate and the applicant has agreed to any terms and conditions that the minister may impose for the purpose, the minister may make a payment in advance of the expenditure by the applicant.

26 Sep 2003 cD-22.01 Reg 1 s38.

Overpayments

- 39(1) The minister may declare all or any payments made to any person pursuant to these regulations to be an overpayment if, in the opinion of the minister:
- (a) the person has knowingly made a false or misleading statement with respect to a material fact on any form or in any information or document provided to the minister pursuant to these regulations;
 - (b) the person has omitted to make a statement or to provide any information or document that results in a statement with respect to a material fact being misleading;
 - (c) in the case of an applicant, the applicant has failed to comply with these regulations or the terms and conditions of an agreement between the applicant and the minister; or
 - (d) in the case of a participant, the participant has failed to comply with these regulations or the terms and conditions of an undertaking between the participant and the minister.
- (2) If the minister declares a payment to be an overpayment, the amount of the overpayment is deemed to be a debt due and owing to the Crown in right of Saskatchewan and may be recovered from the person in any manner authorized pursuant to The Financial Administration Act, 1993 or in any other manner authorized by law.

26 Sep 2003 cD-22.01 Reg 1 s39.

Amendment of approved project

40(1) Subject to subsections (3) to (5), an applicant must apply to the minister to amend a written agreement if the applicant proposes any change to an approved project that affects:

- (a) the amount of financial assistance to be paid to an applicant or on behalf of a participant;
- (b) a training plan set out in the written agreement;
- (c) any reporting requirements set out in the written agreement; or
- (d) any other term or condition of the written agreement.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) to (5), no written agreement may be amended until the minister and the applicant agree in writing to do so.

(3) If an applicant wishes to delay the implementation date for an approved project as set out in a written agreement for a period of not more than eight weeks, the applicant may request that the minister approve that delay.

(4) On receipt of a request pursuant to subsection (3), the minister may notify the applicant in writing that the minister approves of:

- (a) a delay in the implementation date for the period requested by the applicant;
- (b) a delay on the termination date set out in the written agreement for a period equal to the period mentioned in clause (a); and
- (c) a delay in any other dates set out in the written agreement that, in the minister's opinion, is necessitated by the delays of the implementation and termination dates.

(5) On sending out a written notice pursuant to subsection (4), the written agreement is deemed to be amended to refer to the delayed dates mentioned in subsection (4).

26 Sep 2003 cD-22.01 Reg 1 s40.

PART IX Coming into Force

Coming into force

41 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.
