[Sections 58 and 191 of the Act]Directions for the Guidance of Voters

A voter may vote for one candidate only.

Voter's Declaration – A patient in a hospital, a remand prisoner in a remand centre, or a temporarily displaced voter may vote only if he or she makes a voter's declaration at the polling place.

Persons whose names appear on the voters' list may be required to make the declaration and if so required will be allowed to vote only after making the voter's declaration.

HOW TO VOTE

Step 1: On receiving a ballot paper, the voter shall proceed to a voting station provided for the purpose of voting.

Step 2: The voter shall mark the ballot paper by placing a cross or other mark that clearly indicates the voter's choice in the circle to the right of the name of the candidate for whom the voter intends to vote. An example is below.

DO NOT MARK ANY OTHER PART OF THE BALLOT

In the following example, the Candidates are Bill Brown, Jane Hamon, Joseph O'Neil and Alice Smith.

The voter has marked his or her ballot paper in favour of Alice Smith.

Bill BROWN (Political Affiliation) Farmer	<input type="radio"/>
Jane HAMON (Political Affiliation) Lawyer	<input type="radio"/>
Joseph O'NEIL (Political Affiliation) Printer	<input type="radio"/>
Alice SMITH (Political Affiliation) Teacher	<input checked="" type="radio"/>

Step 3: After marking the ballot paper, the voter will fold the ballot paper so that the names of the candidates and the voter's mark on the ballot are concealed, but the initials of the Deputy Returning Officer are exposed.

Leave the voting station with your ballot.

Step 4:

(a) After leaving the voting station, the voter will immediately deliver the folded ballot paper to the Deputy Returning Officer, without showing the front to anyone or displaying the ballot paper so as to make the name of the candidate for whom he or she has voted known to any person.

(b) The Deputy Returning Officer will examine the initials on the ballot paper to confirm it is the ballot paper given to the voter by the Deputy Returning Officer.

(c) After removing the counterfoil, the Deputy Returning Officer will give the ballot back to the voter.

Step 5: The voter will deposit the ballot in the ballot box or allow the Deputy Returning Officer to deposit the ballot in the ballot box.

Step 6: The voter will leave the polling place immediately after the ballot has been deposited in the ballot box.

If a voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper so that he or she cannot conveniently use it as he or she desires, he or she may return it to the Deputy Returning Officer who will give him or her another.

If a voter votes for more than one Candidate, or places any mark on the ballot paper by which he or she can be identified, his or her vote will be void and WILL NOT be counted.

If a voter fraudulently takes a ballot paper out of the polling place or fraudulently delivers to the Deputy Returning Officer to be placed in the ballot box any other paper than the ballot paper given to him or her by the Deputy Returning Officer, he or she will be disqualified from voting for the next five years and is liable to imprisonment for not more than one year.

Warning

189(1) No person shall unlawfully take down, cover up, mutilate, deface or alter an election proclamation, notice or other document required to be posted pursuant to this Act. Any person violating the provision of subsection 189(1) is guilty of an offence and, subject to subsection 216(2) of this Act, if convicted, is liable to a fine of not more than $5,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

Part IContributions

(b) Detail of Contributions

Contributions include money provided to or on behalf of the candidate without compensation from the candidate and includes donations in kind.

Detail of the name of and total amount received from each contributor included in classes 1 to 5 in Part (a) who have provided money, goods or services by way of a gift, loan, advance, deposit or other form of assistance must be reported in the aggregate by classification in the appropriate schedule. Such contributions are to be identified in one of three categories: (A) contributions in excess of $250.00, (B) contributions of $250.00 or less but more than $25.00, and (C) contributions of $25.00 or less. The sum of the categories should reflect the total contributions received for the use of the candidate in each classification schedule.

Where a corporation, trust fund or constituency association makes a contribution, pursuant to subsection 240(6) of The Election Act, 1996, each such contribution must be accompanied by a statement which sets out the name of the person who authorized the contribution on behalf of the corporation, trust fund or constituency association, and the name of and the amount contributed by, each person who made a contribution in excess of $250.00 in a year and whose contribution was used to make up the funds contributed by the corporation, trust fund or constituency association.

Revenue received by a candidate from fund-raising activities, meetings and sales of material of a promotional nature are deemed contributions. The total net proceeds from each source indicated must be recorded and, in the aggregate, reported in this Return.

Detail of the name of and total amount received from each contributor included in classes 1 to 5 in Part (a) who have provided money, goods or services by way of a gift, loan, advance, deposit or other form of assistance must be reported in the aggregate by classification in the appropriate schedule. Such contributions are to be identified in one of three categories: (A) contributions in excess of $250.00, (B) contributions of $250.00 or less but more than $25.00, and (C) contributions of $25.00 or less. The sum of the categories should reflect the total contributions received, in the fiscal period, for the use of the registered political party in each classification schedule.

Revenue received by a registered political party, during the fiscal period, from fund-raising activities, meetings and sales of material of a promotional nature are deemed contributions. The total net proceeds from each source indicated must be recorded and, in the aggregate, reported in this Return.
