- 14(1) Following a hearing pursuant to section 9 or after considering an application pursuant to section 10, the court may:

 - (ii) is in need of a personal guardian.

- (2) The court shall not:

- (a) make an order pursuant to subsection (1) unless alternative ways to assist the adult in making decisions with respect to matters relating to his or her person, including less intrusive forms of support or assistance in decision-making, have been tried or carefully considered; or

- (b) in an order made pursuant to subsection (1), give the personal co-decision-maker or personal guardian the authority to act with respect to all the matters mentioned in section 15 if an order providing particular powers would be sufficient to meet the needs of the adult.
- (3) Where the court makes an order pursuant to subsection (1):
- (a) the court shall determine whether it is in the best interests of the adult to require a review of the order pursuant to clause 22(1)(b) and, if a review is required, shall specify the period within which the review is to take place; and
- (b) where practicable, the court shall appoint a personal co-decision-maker or personal guardian who has a long-standing caring relationship with the adult.
