G CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

Interpretations

40.1 For purposes of Bylaws 40.1 to 50.1, except as otherwise stated:

- (a) “formal complaint” means the complaint or charges contained in the report prepared by the Professional Conduct Committee for determination by the Discipline Committee under clause 28(2)(a) of the Act;
- (b) “complainant” means the person who provided a written complaint to the Institute pursuant to subsection 28(1) of the Act; and
- (c) “respondent” means the registrant whose conduct is the subject of the formal complaint made pursuant to clause 28(2)(a) of the Act;
- (d) “written complaint” means a document in writing received or obtained by the Institute from which an allegation of professional misconduct or professional incompetence of a registrant can be determined and which document contains the name of said registrant.

Requests by the Board

41.1 When the Board determines it is appropriate to request the Professional Conduct Committee to consider a complaint pursuant to subsection 28(1) of the Act, the Board shall direct the Registrar to prepare and forward the complaint in writing to the Professional Conduct Committee.

41.2 All Rules pertaining to Conduct and Discipline shall apply to a complaint received from the Registrar.

Professional Conduct Committee

42.1 The chair of the Professional Conduct Committee shall have authority:

- (a) to determine whether information received by the Institute is a written complaint;
- (b) to direct Institute employees or officers to obtain additional information prior to making the determination under Bylaw 42.1(a);
- (c) to review and assess, and direct Institute employees or officers, to review all the information obtained pursuant to Bylaws 42.1(a) and 42.1(b);
- (d) to refer the matter to a committee (other than the Professional Conduct Committee or the Discipline Committee), Institute employees or officers, for intervention, mediation, or resolution;
- (e) to appoint one or more persons who shall investigate the complaint;
- (f) to determine the scope of the investigation required under subsection 28(1) of the Act;
- (g) to determine the expanded scope of an investigation or the scope of an additional investigation where the investigators obtain information which suggests an expansion of an investigation or an additional investigation should be considered;
- (h) to determine that an investigation be discontinued where the complainant declines to provide information which is essential to complete an investigation; and
- (i) to appoint the person who shall prosecute the complaint under subsection 31(2) of the Act.

42.2 The complaint is deemed to be received by the Professional Conduct Committee under subsection 28(1) of the Act when the chair determines that it is a written complaint under Bylaw 42.1(a). The complaint becomes a complaint of the committee at that time and an investigation shall be completed unless Bylaw 42.1(h) applies.

Determinations of No Further Action

43.1 The Professional Conduct Committee reserves discretion in each situation to determine when an investigation has been completed.

43.2 Without restricting or limiting the discretion granted to the Professional Conduct Committee in subclause 28(2)(b)(ii) of the Act, the Professional Conduct Committee may make a recommendation that no further action be taken when:

- (c) to approve the charge comprising the formal complaint to be heard by a discipline hearing panel, which charge shall be included in a report to the Discipline Committee; and
- (d) to approve an amendment to the formal complaint where the committee determines that the formal complaint fails to include all applicable instances of professional misconduct or professional incompetence, as the case may be, and which amendment shall be included in an amended report to the Discipline Committee.

44.2 No person who has a connection to the respondent, the complainant or the subject matter of the initial complaint, where an inference could be drawn that the connection could influence a decision of the person during the investigation or the decision of the committee relating to the complaint, shall be appointed as an investigator or participate as a member of the Professional Conduct Committee.

44.3 Bylaw 44.2 does not apply to a person whose connection results from the role as investigator or committee member.

Dispute Resolution

45.1 Before advising the Discipline Committee the matter has been resolved with the consent of the complainant and the registrant who is the subject of the investigation pursuant to subclause 28(2)(b)(i) of the Act, the Professional Conduct Committee shall obtain the complainant's written declaration that he will comply with any direction issued by the committee which it identifies as necessary to appropriately resolve the matter.
