

PART II

REVISED REGULATIONS OF SASKATCHEWAN

CHAPTER D-17 REG 10

The Department of Health Act

Section 17

Order in Council 121/97, dated March 4, 1997

(Filed March 5, 1997)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Health Professions Training Bursary Regulations.

Interpretation

2 In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Department of Health Act;
- (b) “applicant” means a person who applies for a bursary pursuant to subsection 3(1);
- (c) “bursary” means a bursary granted pursuant to subsection 3(1);
- (d) “minister” means the member of the Executive Council to whom for the time being the administration of the Act is assigned;
- (e) “non-medical bursary” means a bursary provided with respect to training other than training leading to a degree, diploma, certificate or designation in medicine;
- (f) “recipient” means a person to whom a bursary is granted.

Bursary

3(1) The minister may grant a bursary to an applicant for the purpose of providing financial assistance with respect to training to be received by the applicant for a maximum period of four years leading to a degree, diploma, certificate or designation in a health-related discipline.

(2) A bursary granted pursuant to subsection (1) may cover all or a portion of the expenses associated with the recipient's training, including tuition fees, book costs and a living allowance.

Payment

4 Payment of a bursary is to be made in Canadian funds, with the exception of a payment with respect to registration and tuition fees for a recipient receiving training outside Canada.

Agreement

5(1) Before an applicant may be granted a bursary, the applicant shall enter into an agreement with the minister governing the terms of the bursary.

(2) The agreement may include terms:

- (a) specifying the training that the applicant is to receive and the time for completion of the training;
- (b) requiring the applicant to take all steps necessary to become qualified to provide services in Saskatchewan for which the training is to be provided;

- (c) requiring the applicant to apply for and, where offered, accept employment within any areas in Saskatchewan that are specified in the agreement;
 - (d) requiring the applicant to continue in the employment mentioned in clause (c) for the period specified in the agreement.
- (3) The agreement may include terms requiring repayment, if the applicant fails to meet the terms of the agreement, of:
- (a) the amount of the bursary, or a portion of the amount of the bursary, together with interest at the rate specified in section 8 calculated from the day on which moneys are first advanced; or
 - (b) the amount of the bursary.

Promissory note

6(1) For the purpose of enforcing the obligations of a recipient pursuant to an agreement, the minister may require the recipient to give a promissory note for an amount that approximates, as nearly as the minister is able to compute, the full amount of the bursary to be paid to the recipient, together with interest at the rate specified in section 8 calculated for the term set out in the agreement.

- (2) The minister shall return the promissory note to the recipient when:
- (a) the recipient completes the period of employment mentioned in clause 5(2)(d); or
 - (b) repays any amount outstanding pursuant to the promissory note.

Refund of repayments

7 A recipient of a non-medical bursary is entitled to a refund of amounts repaid to the minister if, within five years after completing the training for which the bursary was granted, the recipient:

- (a) begins or resumes employment in Saskatchewan of the kind specified in the agreement; and
- (b) continues in the employment for the period mentioned in clause 5(2)(d).

Rate of interest

8 The rate of interest mentioned in clause 5(3)(a) and subsection 6(1) is the rate per year fixed for the purposes of those provisions by the Minister of Finance for the period of the agreement.

Coming into force

9 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.

CHAPTER F-8.001 REG 7

The Farm Financial Stability Act

Sections 22, 24, 25, 26, 33 and 84

Order in Council 122/97, dated March 4, 1997

(Filed March 5, 1997)

PART I

Title and Interpretation

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Big Game Damage Compensation Program Regulations.

Interpretation

2 In these regulations:

- (a) “account” means the Big Game Damage Compensation Account established in the fund pursuant to section 4;
- (b) “Act” means The Farm Financial Stability Act;
- (c) “big game” means white-tailed deer, mule deer, antelope, elk, moose or bear;
- (d) “corporation” means the corporation appointed pursuant to section 5 to administer the program and the account;
- (e) “field crops” means annual seeded crops, perennial crops, market garden crops, trees on tree nurseries, sod on sod farms, leafcutter bees and leafcutter bee shelters;
- (f) “program” means the Big Game Damage Compensation Program established pursuant to section 3.

PART II

Program and Account Established

Program established

3 The Big Game Damage Compensation Program is established, pursuant to subsection 22(1) of the Act.

Account established

4(1) The Big Game Damage Compensation Account is established in the fund for the purpose of administering the program, pursuant to clause 24(2)(a) of the Act.

(2) The Minister of Finance is authorized to deposit into the account:

- (a) all contributions from the Government of Canada that are directed to the account for the purposes of the program pursuant to an agreement made pursuant to subsection 22(2) of the Act; and

- (b) from moneys appropriated by the Legislature, all contributions of the Government of Saskatchewan to the program pursuant to an agreement made pursuant to subsection 22(2) of the Act.
- (3) The account consists of:
 - (a) all contributions mentioned in subsection (2);
 - (b) all other moneys appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of the program;
 - (c) all moneys received from the minister responsible for the administration of The Wildlife Act for the purposes of the program;
 - (d) all earnings on investments of the account; and
 - (e) all other moneys donated to the account for the purposes of the program.
- (4) All compensation payable to producers in accordance with these regulations is to be paid from the account.

PART III Corporation Appointed

Corporation appointed

- 5(1) The Saskatchewan Crop Insurance Corporation is appointed, pursuant to clause 26(1)(b) of the Act, to:
 - (a) administer the program; and
 - (b) administer the account for the purposes of the program.
- (2) For the purpose of administering the program and the account, the corporation has:
 - (a) all the powers given to it pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act; and
 - (b) any other power necessary to administer the program and the account.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), for the purpose of administering the program and the account, the corporation may:
 - (a) appoint or engage any professional and technical personnel that may be required and determine their salaries and other remuneration;
 - (b) employ any officers and other employees that the corporation considers necessary for its purposes;
 - (c) make bylaws respecting the conduct of its proceedings and generally for the conduct of its activities;
 - (d) police and audit program compliance;
 - (e) enter into any agreement with any person, agency, organization, association, institution or body that the corporation considers advisable;

- (f) execute any bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable or transferable instruments;
- (g) use any moneys received in the account to make payments to producers pursuant to the program;
- (h) invest any moneys in the account that are not presently required for the purposes of the program in any investments that are authorized pursuant to The Financial Administration Act, 1993 as investments for the general revenue fund; and
- (i) dispose of any investment made pursuant to clause (h), subject to the terms of the investment, in any manner, on any terms and in any amount that the corporation considers advisable.

PART IV Losses to Field Crops

Producer eligible for compensation

6 A producer of a commercial agricultural crop in Saskatchewan is eligible for compensation in accordance with these regulations for losses to field crops resulting from damage caused by big game.

Determination of loss

7 The corporation, after inspecting the damaged field crop prior to harvesting, shall determine the loss eligible for compensation by estimating:

- (a) in the case of annual seeded crops, market garden crops, trees on tree nurseries, sod on sod farms and leafcutter bees, the harvestable production lost as a result of the damage caused by big game;
- (b) in the case of perennial crops:
 - (i) the cost of replacing the plants damaged by big game where the plants are completely destroyed; or
 - (ii) an amount based on the damage by big game to the plants where the plants are not completely destroyed; or
- (c) in the case of leafcutter bee shelters damaged by big game, the cost of repairing or replacing those shelters.

Determination of compensation

8(1) The corporation shall pay to the producer 70% of the loss estimated pursuant to clause 7(a):

- (a) at the maximum fixed price option for that crop offered under the crop insurance program pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act; or
- (b) where the damage occurs to a field crop for which crop insurance pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act is not available, at a price for that crop determined by the corporation.

(2) In the case of damage to perennial crops, the corporation shall pay to the producer 70% of the loss estimated pursuant to clause 7(b).

(3) In the case of damage to leafcutter bee shelters, the corporation shall pay to the producer 70% of the loss estimated pursuant to clause 7(c).

(4) An amount payable by the corporation pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) may be reduced by any amount the corporation considers appropriate where, in the corporation's opinion, it is agronomically feasible to produce another crop in the same growing season on the area damaged by big game.

Restrictions on payment

9 The corporation shall not make any payment pursuant to section 8 where, in the corporation's opinion:

- (a) the amount of compensation is less than $500 per field crop;
- (b) any portion of the damaged field crop is harvested prior to an inspection by the corporation;
- (c) the producer has not made every reasonable effort to harvest the field crop to avoid winter damage by big game; or
- (d) the producer has not made every reasonable effort to utilize prevention measures offered by the Department of Environment and Resource Management, and all other reasonable prevention measures, to control damage caused by big game to field crops.

No payment where access unduly restricted

10(1) The corporation shall not make any payment pursuant to section 8 where access to the land by licensed hunters has been unduly restricted by the producer.

(2) A restriction on access is not undue if the intent of the restriction is to:

- (a) protect persons, buildings or property;
- (b) protect livestock in a manner consistent with the producer's normal livestock operations;
- (c) control or restrict vehicle travel; or
- (d) manage or limit the number of hunters.

PART V

Losses to Stacked Hay, Silage Bales and Honey

Producer eligible for compensation

11 A producer of a commercial agricultural product in Saskatchewan is eligible for compensation in accordance with these regulations for losses to stacked hay, silage bales and honey resulting from damage caused by big game.

Determination of loss

12 The corporation, after inspecting the stacked hay, silage bales or honey damaged by big game, shall determine the loss eligible for compensation by estimating the volume of the stacked hay, silage bales or honey damaged by big game.

Determination of compensation

13 The corporation shall pay to the producer 70% of the loss estimated pursuant to section 12:

- (a) at the maximum fixed price option for that crop offered under the crop insurance program pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act; or
- (b) where the damage occurs to stacked hay, silage bales or honey for which crop insurance pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act is not available, at a price for that crop determined by the corporation.

Compensation respecting storage yard sites

14(1) In this section, “storage yard site” means a site where stacked hay, silage bales or honey is stored by a producer.

(2) Where there is more than one storage yard site on a quarter-section of land or river lot, the combination of storage yard sites on that quarter-section or river lot is deemed to be one storage yard site.

(3) If the damage mentioned in section 11 is with respect to a storage yard site, the corporation shall deduct $500 from the payment for the storage yard site for which compensation is to be paid.

(4) The maximum compensation to be paid by the corporation respecting a storage yard site is $5,000.

Restrictions on payment

15 The corporation shall not make any payment pursuant to section 13 where:

- (a) the amount of compensation is less than $500; or
- (b) the producer has not made every reasonable effort to utilize prevention measures offered by the Department of Environment and Resource Management, and all other reasonable prevention measures, to control damage caused by big game to stacked hay, silage bales and honey.

PART VI
Applications

Application for compensation

16 An eligible producer who wishes to obtain compensation shall:

- (a) apply to the corporation on a form provided by the corporation and within a period determined by the corporation;

(b) solemnly declare that the contents of the form mentioned in clause (a) are true; and

(c) at the time the application is submitted or at any subsequent time, supply the corporation with any information the corporation may require in order to determine the producer's eligibility for compensation.

Transitional

17 Where a producer filed an application for compensation pursuant to Part VII.1 of The Wildlife Regulations, 1981 and, on the coming into force of these regulations, has not yet received a determination with respect to that application, that application is to be considered as an application made pursuant to these regulations.

PART VII
General

No double recovery

18 Where an applicant for compensation pursuant to these regulations is eligible to receive compensation under a crop insurance contract pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act, no compensation is to be paid by the corporation pursuant to these regulations to that applicant respecting a loss that is covered by the crop insurance contract.

Reconsideration by corporation

19(1) Within 30 days after a determination by the corporation pursuant to these regulations, an applicant may request, in writing, that the corporation reconsider the determination.

(2) Where the corporation receives a request pursuant to subsection (1), the corporation shall reconsider the determination and may confirm, reverse or vary that determination.

(3) Nothing in these regulations entitles an applicant to a hearing before the corporation.

Fiscal year

20 The fiscal year of the program and the account is the fiscal year of the corporation.

Annual report

21 The corporation shall report on the activities of the program and the account in its annual report prepared pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act.

Program established

- 3(1) The New Crops Insurance Program is established pursuant to subsection 22(1) of the Act.
- (2) The purpose of the program is to provide insurance coverage for new or developmental crops lawfully grown in Saskatchewan that are not otherwise eligible for insurance under a contract of crop insurance pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act.

Account established

- 4(1) The New Crops Insurance Account is established in the fund pursuant to clause 24(2)(a) of the Act for the purpose of administering the program.
- (2) The Minister of Finance is authorized to deposit into the account:
- (a) all contributions from the Government of Canada that are directed to the account for the purposes of the program pursuant to an agreement made pursuant to subsection 22(2) of the Act; and
 - (b) from moneys appropriated by the Legislature, all contributions of the Government of Saskatchewan to the program pursuant to an agreement made pursuant to subsection 22(2) of the Act.
- (3) The account consists of:
- (a) all contributions mentioned in subsection (2);
 - (b) all other moneys appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of the program;
 - (c) all premiums received by the corporation for the purposes of the program;

- (d) all earnings on investments of the account; and
- (e) all other moneys received in the account for the purposes of the program.
- (4) All moneys payable pursuant to the program are to be paid from the account.

Corporation appointed

5(1) The Saskatchewan Crop Insurance Corporation is appointed, pursuant to clause 26(1)(b) of the Act, to:

- (a) administer the program; and
- (b) administer the account for the purposes of the program.
- (2) For the purpose of administering the program and the account, the corporation has:
 - (a) all the powers given to it pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act; and
 - (b) any other power necessary to administer the program and the account.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), for the purpose of administering the program and the account, the corporation may:
 - (a) appoint or engage any professional and technical personnel that may be required and determine their salaries and other remuneration;
 - (b) employ any officers and other employees that the corporation considers necessary for its purposes;
 - (c) make bylaws respecting the conduct of its proceedings and generally for the conduct of its activities;
 - (d) collect any premium due pursuant to the program;
 - (e) police and audit program compliance;
 - (f) enter into any agreement with any person, agency, organization, association, institution or body that the corporation considers advisable;
 - (g) borrow or raise moneys for its activities;
 - (h) purchase, or otherwise acquire, and sell, or otherwise dispose of, real property;
 - (i) execute any bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable or transferable instruments;
 - (j) undertake research, conduct studies and provide information to producers in relation to commodities;
 - (k) use any moneys received by the corporation for the purposes of the program to:
 - (i) make payments pursuant to the program; and
 - (ii) pay the expenses incurred by the corporation in administering the program and the account;

(l) invest any moneys in the account that are not presently required for the purposes of the program in any investments that are authorized pursuant to The Financial Administration Act, 1993 as investments for the general revenue fund; and

(m) dispose of any investment made pursuant to clause (l), subject to the terms of the investment, in any manner, on any terms and in any amount that the corporation considers advisable.

Fiscal year

6 The fiscal year of the program and the account is the fiscal year of the corporation.

Annual report

7 The corporation shall report on the activities of the program and the account in its annual report prepared pursuant to The Crop Insurance Act.

Coming into force

8 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.

CHAPTER F-13.4 REG 13

The Financial Administration Act, 1993

Section 71

Order in Council 118/97, dated March 4, 1997

(Filed March 5, 1997)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Vow of Perpetual Poverty Income Tax Remission Regulations.

Interpretation

2(1) In these regulations:

(a) “Act” means The Income Tax Act;

(b) “taxpayer” means an individual who is eligible in a taxation year for the deduction authorized by subsection 110(2) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

(2) For the purposes of these regulations, definitions and interpretations used or adopted for the purposes of the Act apply unless otherwise defined in these regulations.

Eligibility

3(1) A taxpayer may apply for a remission of tax pursuant to these regulations for a taxation year by submitting a form that is acceptable to the Minister of Finance.

(2) A taxpayer is eligible for a remission of tax pursuant to these regulations for a taxation year if the taxpayer:

(a) is a member of a religious order who has taken a vow of perpetual poverty and has received for that taxation year a deduction pursuant to subsection 110(2) the Income Tax Act (Canada);

(b) has filed with the minister a return of income for the taxation year in accordance with the Act;

- (c) has paid all outstanding taxes, penalties and interest pursuant to the Act for that taxation year;
- (d) has not previously received, either pursuant to these regulations or otherwise, a remission of the tax for which the application for the remission is being made; and
- (e) applies for the remission not later than six years after the end of the taxation year to which the application relates.

Calculation of remission of flat tax

4 Subject to sections 3 and 7 of these regulations, a taxpayer is granted a remission of tax payable pursuant to section 3.1 of the Act for a taxation year in any positive amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$RT = TPS - TPC$$

where:

RT is the amount of the remission of the tax granted for the taxation year;

TPS is the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer pursuant to section 3.1 of the Act for the taxation year; and

TPC is the amount of tax that would be payable by the taxpayer pursuant to section 3.1 of the Act for the taxation year when the amount of any deduction pursuant to subsection 110(2) of the Income Tax Act (Canada) is deducted when computing the net income of the taxpayer for the taxation year.

Calculation of remission of surtaxes

5 Subject to sections 3 and 7 of these regulations, a taxpayer is granted a remission of tax payable pursuant to sections 5 and 5.1 of the Act for a taxation year in any positive amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$RT = TPS - TPC$$

where:

RT is the amount of remission of the tax granted for the taxation year;

TPS is the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer pursuant to sections 5 and 5.1 of the Act for the taxation year; and

TPC is the amount of tax that would be payable by the taxpayer pursuant to sections 5 and 5.1 of the Act for the taxation year when any amount remitted pursuant to section 4 of these regulations for the taxation year is deducted when computing the amount of tax payable by the taxpayer pursuant to sections 3 and 3.1 of the Act for the taxation year.

Remission of penalties interest

6 Where a remission of tax is granted pursuant to section 4 or 5, the taxpayer is granted a remission of any penalties and interest that have been imposed pursuant to the Act with respect to any amounts remitted pursuant to section 4 or 5.

Maximum amount of remission

7 The total remission granted to a taxpayer pursuant to these regulations for a taxation year must not exceed the amount of tax, penalties and interest paid pursuant to the Act by the taxpayer for the taxation year.

Coming into force

8 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.

CHAPTER F-13.4 REG 14

The Financial Administration Act, 1993

Section 71

Order in Council 119/97, dated March 4, 1997

(Filed March 5, 1997)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Farm Foreclosure Income Tax Remission Regulations.

Interpretation

2(1) In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Income Tax Act;
- (b) “farmer” means an individual who was the beneficial owner of farm property that was surrendered by the individual to a creditor of the individual in circumstances to which section 79 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) applies;
- (c) “farm foreclosure”, in relation to a farmer, means a situation where beneficial ownership of farm property was surrendered by the farmer to a creditor of the farmer in circumstances to which section 79 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) applies;
- (d) “farm property” means property used for the purpose of farming.

(2) For the purposes of these regulations, definitions and interpretations used or adopted for the purposes of the Act apply unless otherwise defined in these regulations.

Eligibility

3(1) A farmer may apply for a remission of tax pursuant to these regulations for a taxation year by submitting a form acceptable to the Minister of Finance.

(2) A farmer is eligible for a remission of tax pursuant to these regulations for a taxation year if the farmer:

- (a) has filed with the minister a return of income for the taxation year as required by the Act;
- (b) has paid all outstanding taxes, interest and penalties payable pursuant to the Act for the taxation year;

- (c) has not previously received, either pursuant to these regulations or otherwise, a remission of the tax for which the application for the remission is being made;
- (d) provides documentation or other proof, to the satisfaction of the Minister of Finance, that:
 - (i) substantiates the facts necessary to establish the farmer's eligibility for the remission of tax payable pursuant to section 4 or 5; and
 - (ii) establishes that the farmer has paid all outstanding taxes, interest and penalties payable pursuant to the Act for the taxation year; and
- (e) applies for the remission not later than six years after the end of the taxation year to which the application relates.

Calculation of remission of tax

4 Subject to sections 3 and 6 of these regulations, a farmer is granted a remission of the net tax payable pursuant to sections 3.1, 4, 5 and 5.1 of the Act for a taxation year in any positive amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$RT = TPS - TPC$$

where:

RT is the amount of remission of tax granted for that taxation year;

TPS is the net tax payable by the farmer pursuant to sections 3.1, 4, 5 and 5.1 of the Act for the taxation year; and

TPC is the net tax that would be payable by the farmer pursuant to sections 3.1, 4, 5 and 5.1 of the Act for the taxation year when the amount included in the income of the farmer for the taxation year as a result of the application of section 79 of the Income Tax Act (Canada) to a farm foreclosure is excluded:

- (a) in determining the net income of the farmer for the taxation year for the purposes of section 3.1 of the Act;
- (b) in determining the tax computed pursuant to sections 3 and 3.1 of the Act for the taxation year for the purposes of section 5 of the Act;
- (c) in determining the tax computed pursuant to sections 3 and 3.1 of the Act for the taxation year for the purposes of section 5.1 of the Act; and
- (d) in determining the net income of the farmer for the taxation year and the tax computed pursuant to sections 3, 3.1, 5 and 5.1 of the Act for the taxation year, for the purposes of section 4 of the Act.

Accountability of reduction in taxes

5 Subject to sections 3 and 6 of these regulations, if in the calculation of the value of TPC pursuant to section 4 of these regulations any tax reduction that would be available to the farmer for the taxation year pursuant to section 4 of the Act exceeds the aggregate tax that would be payable by the farmer for the taxation year pursuant to sections 3.1, 5 and 5.1 of the Act, the farmer is granted a remission of tax payable pursuant to section 3 of the Act for the taxation year in an amount not exceeding the amount of the excess.

Maximum amount of remission

6 The total remission granted to a farmer pursuant to these regulations for a taxation year must not exceed the amount of tax actually paid pursuant to the Act by the farmer for the taxation year.

Coming into force

7 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.
