Section 108

Order in Council 242/97, dated April 22, 1997

(Filed April 23, 1997)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Vehicle Classification and Registration Amendment Regulations, 1997.

R.R.S. c.H-3.1 Reg 3, new section 15

2 Section 15 of The Vehicle Classification and Registration Regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

“Class L

15(1) A class of vehicles to be called ‘Class L’ is established consisting of vehicles that are:

- (a) registered pursuant to section 30 of The Vehicle Administration Act;
- (b) owned by a dealer or consigned to a dealer through a written agreement; and
- (c) available for sale by that dealer.

(2) A vehicle registered in Class L may be used for the following purposes:

- (a) subject to the weight restriction mentioned in subclause (b)(iii), as a personal conveyance;
- (b) for the transportation of:
 - (i) passengers without compensation;
 - (ii) recreational equipment without compensation where that transportation is not in the course of any employment or business undertaking;
 - (iii) goods other than those mentioned in subclause (ii) that are owned by any person driving the vehicle pursuant to subsection (3), where the weight of the goods does not exceed 445 kilograms;
 - (iv) special weights or loads, not for delivery to any customer or consignee, when demonstrating the performance of the vehicle, where the vehicle is accompanied by the dealer or any of the dealer’s employees and the prospective purchaser;
 - (v) notwithstanding the restrictions imposed by subclauses (b)(ii), (iii) and (iv), vehicles, whether driven, towed, carried or saddlemounted, where a dealer number plate is displayed on each vehicle being driven, towed, carried or saddlemounted.

- (3) A vehicle registered in Class L may be driven by the following:
- (a) the dealer;
 - (b) the employees of the dealer;
 - (c) the spouse or child of the dealer or the dealer's employee if the spouse or child shares the same residence as the dealer or the employee;
 - (d) a prospective purchaser for the purposes of demonstration for a period not exceeding seven days, but if the period exceeds 48 hours, written approval from the dealer must be carried in the vehicle and is to include:
 - (i) the name and address of the dealer and of the customer;
 - (ii) the vehicle's year, make and vehicle identification number; and
 - (iii) the start and end date of the demonstration;
 - (e) a representative of a vehicle manufacturer when the registered owner of the Class L registration is in the business of offering that manufacturer's vehicles for sale as new vehicles;
 - (f) subject to clauses (4)(b) and (c), any other person not mentioned in this subsection who is designated by the dealer or one of his or her employees, but only for up to 48 hours.
- (4) No dealer shall authorize the use of a dealer plate:
- (a) by a customer on a vehicle after an agreement is signed for its sale or lease;
 - (b) on a vehicle that is dedicated for use as a replacement unit offered to individuals whose vehicles are being repaired or serviced by the dealership;
 - (c) in order to help facilitate the movement of passengers as part of a special event, unless it is driven by the dealer or one of the dealer's employees; or
 - (d) outside Saskatchewan for a period exceeding 60 days.
- (5) No dealer shall accept compensation for the use of a vehicle while displaying a dealer plate owned by the dealer”.

Coming into force

- 3 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.
