- (4) If the volume of forest products harvested over the term of a term supply licence is less than the volume of forest products approved for harvest during the term of the licence, the minister, on renewing the licence, may reduce the volume of forest products to be harvested for the renewal period.

Licensing of special projects

16(1) Subject to Part V of The Wildlife Act, 1997, the minister may, for the purposes of reintroduction, propagation, rehabilitation, protection or scientific research, issue a licence to any person or the government of any province or country:

- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), a person may be granted a licence to conduct research activities involving the introduction and propagation of exotic plants on provincial forest land.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (4) “exotic plant” means a plant that is not native to provincial forest land and that:
- (a) is capable of impeding the growth or survival of native plants; or
  - (b) may have a negative impact on the functioning of the forest ecosystem;
- and includes any parts, tissues or genetic material of an exotic plant.

Volumes exempt from dues or permit requirements

17(1) The following persons may, without a licence, harvest timber, free of dues and fees, for use as fuelwood or for the construction and maintenance of a cabin, workshop or storehouse on provincial forest land:

Removal permitted

18 A holder of a disposition of Crown resource lands for recreational purposes issued pursuant to The Resource Lands Regulations, 1989 may, without a licence, harvest forest products, free of dues and fees, for his or her own use from land that is the subject of the disposition.

Minister may amend licence

19(1) Subject to the Act and any amendment provisions set out in a licence, the minister, on the minister's own initiative, may amend a licence where the minister considers it appropriate to do so.

(2) If a licensee who holds a term supply licence harvests less than 50% of the approved harvest volume schedule in the licence for two consecutive years, the minister may:

- (a) amend the harvest volume schedule for the remainder of the term; or
- (b) cancel the licence.

(3) Before amending a licence, the minister shall provide the person to whom the licence has been issued with:

- (a) reasonable notice of the intended amendment, including written reasons; and
- (b) an opportunity to make written representations to the minister.

(4) Where the minister amends a licence pursuant to this section and the amendment is expressly inconsistent with any terms of the existing licence, those terms are void to the extent they are inconsistent with the amendment, and the amended provisions are deemed to be incorporated into the licence as terms of the licence.

Review and revision of allowable harvest volumes

20(1) Unless otherwise provided in a forest management agreement, the minister may revise the harvest volume schedule for a licence area at each extension date.

(2) Where the licensee carries out intensive forest management on lands within the licence area and where the licensee can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the minister that the sustainable timber yield has increased on lands affected by intensive forest management, the minister may increase the harvest volume schedule authorized under the licence by an amount equal to the increase in sustainable timber yield.

Reallocation

21(1) In this section, “shortfall” means the amount by which the total volume harvested between extension dates by the licensee who holds a licence respecting a forest management agreement is less than the harvest volume schedule specified in that licence or forest management plan for that same period.

(2) At the first extension date of a forest management agreement following the coming into force of the Act and every five years after that, the minister may allocate the shortfall to any other person by way of a term supply licence or forest product permit.

(3) Before allocating the shortfall to any other person, the minister shall provide the licensee who holds the licence respecting the forest management agreement with:

- (a) reasonable notice of the intended shortfall allocation, including written reasons;
- (b) an opportunity within six months from receipt of the notice mentioned in clause (a):
  - (i) to make written representations to the minister respecting the intended shortfall allocation; or
  - (ii) to submit plans for the licensee's use of the shortfall; and
- (c) a written response to any representations made or plans submitted by the licensee pursuant to clause (b).

(4) The allocation of harvesting rights respecting any shortfall does not constitute a withdrawal from the licence area, nor does any shortfall allocation alter third party volume exclusions set out in the licence.

Adjustment of annual harvest volume schedule

22(1) Notwithstanding any term of a licence, the minister may adjust the annual harvest volume schedule authorized in the licence where:

- (a) improved methodology becomes available for recalculating the annual harvest volume schedule and the resulting recalculation supports an adjustment to the harvest volume schedule;
- (b) forest inventory information becomes available that supports a recalculation in the harvest volume schedule;
- (c) lands that were available for harvest by the licensee are no longer available for harvest; or
- (d) more forest products are destroyed than are accounted for by the allowed risk factors used in the calculation of the harvest volume schedule.

(2) The minister shall give the licensee notice of any adjustment in the annual harvest volume schedule at least three months before the submission date of the operating plan for the next operating year.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a forest management agreement unless the forest management agreement states that subsection (1) applies or a regulation made pursuant to subsection 36(4) of the Act states that subsection (1) applies.

Assignments or transfers prohibited

23(1) A licensee shall not assign, transfer, charge or otherwise dispose of any rights, benefits or obligations under a licence without the prior written consent of the minister.

(2) Where a corporation that is a licensee changes its name by amending its articles, that amendment does not by itself constitute a disposition for the purposes of this section.

Obligations on expiration, etc., of licence

24(1) On the expiration, surrender or cancellation of a licence, the licensee shall remove all structures, goods or chattels, whether affixed to the land or not, from the licence area within a time specified by the minister.

(2) Where structures, improvements, goods or chattels are not removed within the time mentioned in subsection (1), the licensee has no further rights of removal and all remaining structures, improvements, goods or chattels:

- (a) are forfeited to the Crown without payment or compensation; and
- (b) may be disposed of in any manner that the minister considers appropriate.

(3) Where a licensee fails to comply with subsection (1), the minister may remove the structures, goods or chattels and the cost of doing so shall be a debt due and owing by the licensee to the Crown.

Licensee obligations continue

25 Notwithstanding the expiry, surrender, suspension or cancellation of a licence, the licensee is liable:

- (a) to pay dues and fees owing to the Crown respecting the licence;
- (b) to perform all obligations incurred before its expiry, surrender, suspension or cancellation imposed pursuant to the Act, these regulations, the licence or any approved forest management or operating plan related to:
  - (i) removal of harvested forest products;
  - (ii) renewal;
  - (iii) road, landing or right of way reclamation;
  - (iv) record reporting; and
  - (v) any activity required to be performed under an approved forest management or operating plan; and
- (c) for the payment of the restoration fee set out in Table 1 of Part 1 of the Appendix where the licensee fails to perform, within the time set by the minister, any obligation mentioned in subclauses (b)(i) to (iii) and (v) incurred under the licence in the licence area.

- (2) With the prior written approval of the minister, a person may process Crown timber into woodchips before scaling.
- (3) With the prior written approval of the minister, a licensee, using procedures set out in the licence, may measure the volume of standing timber to be used for calculating the dues and fees payable.
- (4) Where a licensee harvests a cumulative annual volume of less than 250 cubic metres of timber, the licensee must measure the timber in the manner set out in the licence.

Scaling plan
