(2) Where the minister detains livestock pursuant to this section, the pasture manager shall notify the patron that the minister, in accordance with section 11 of the Act and these regulations:

- (a) has detained the livestock; and

(2) When more than one patron or person who delivered livestock to a pasture pursuant to a patron's allocation did not receive delivery of all his or her livestock, the minister may, in the minister's discretion, dispose of the surplus animals to the patron or patrons, or to the person or persons, whose undelivered animals best meet the description of the surplus animals.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to livestock that are delivered to a pasture pursuant to a patron's allocation and that are known to have died or strayed from the pasture.

- (a) construct a fence within or along the boundary of the excluded land;
- (b) at all times maintain the fence and contain the livestock that the owner or occupant pastures on the excluded land; and
- (c) make arrangements satisfactory to the pasture manager with respect to the transportation of livestock to and from the excluded land.
