PART IIREVISED REGULATIONS OF SASKATCHEWAN*CHAPTER A-22.2 REG 1The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Act, 1999*

Section 26

Commission Order, dated July 6, 2000

(Filed August 31, 2000)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification (Designated Trades) Regulations.

Interpretation

2 In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Act, 1999;
- (b) “grade” means a grade within the meaning of The Education Act, 1995.

Designation of trades

3 The following trades are designated trades:

- (a) all trades designated pursuant to Part II of The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Regulations;
- (b) the custom harvester trade;
- (c) the electronics assembler trade.

Training and certification in designated trades

4(1) The training and certification requirements for the designated trades mentioned in clause 3(a) are as set out in Part III of The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Regulations.

(2) The training and certification requirements for the designated trades mentioned in clauses 3(b) and (c) are as set out in sections 5 and 6, respectively.

Custom harvester trade

5(1) In this section, “trade” means the trade designated in accordance with clause 3(b) as the “custom harvester trade” and includes harvesting a variety of crops on a contract basis for other farmers throughout the North American grain belt, and may include the managing and supervising of a team of operators who harvest crops and haul grain to storage using trucks and highway tractor-trailer units.

(2) This section applies to employers, tradespersons and apprentices in the trade and any other person who performs the work of the trade.

(3) No person is eligible to enter into an apprenticeship program in the trade unless that person has:

- (a) a Saskatchewan grade 10 standing; or
- (b) a standing that is, in the opinion of the commission, equivalent to the standing mentioned in clause (a).

- (4) The term of apprenticeship in the trade consists of four apprenticeship years.
- (5) Each apprenticeship year requires 800 hours of on-the-job training and technical training.

Electronics assembler trade

6(1) In this section, “trade” means the trade designated in accordance with clause 3(c) as the “electronics assembler trade” and includes:

- (a) interpreting electronic assembly drawings, schematics and production instructions; and
 - (b) assembling, testing, reworking and repairing circuit boards, cablewire harnesses, chassis and equipment racks, primarily at manufacturing facilities.
- (2) This section applies to employers, tradespersons and apprentices in the trade and any other person who performs the work of the trade.
- (3) No person is eligible to enter into an apprenticeship program in the trade unless that person has:
 - (a) a Saskatchewan grade 11 standing; or
 - (b) a standing that is, in the opinion of the commission, equivalent to the standing mentioned in clause (a).
- (4) The term of apprenticeship in the trade consists of two apprenticeship years.
- (5) Each apprenticeship year requires 1,800 hours of on-the-job training and technical training.
- (6) An employer who employs one journeyperson in the trade in Saskatchewan, or an employer who is a journeyperson working in the trade in Saskatchewan, may employ:
 - (a) three apprentices in the trade; and
 - (b) three additional apprentices for each additional journeyperson in the trade employed by the employer in Saskatchewan.

Coming into force

7 These regulations come into force on the day on which they are filed with the Registrar of Regulations.

CHAPTER A-22.2 REG 2*The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Act, 1999*

Section 54

Order in Council 564/2000, dated September 12, 2000

(Filed September 13, 2000)

PART I

Short Title and InterpretationTitle

1 These regulations may be cited as The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification (Commission Selection) Regulations.

Interpretation

2 In these regulations:

- (a) “Act” means The Apprenticeship and Trade Certification Act, 1999;
- (b) “designated industry group” means the organizations designated pursuant to clause 4(b) or 5(b) to select a representative for appointment to the commission from the industry sector to which those organizations belong;
- (c) “designated organization” means an organization designated pursuant to clause 4(a) or 5(a) to select a representative for appointment to the commission from the industry sector to which the designated organization belongs;
- (d) “organization” means an employee organization, an employer organization or a trade board, as the case requires;
- (e) “representative” means an employee representative or an employer representative, as the case requires;
- (f) “Table” means a Table of the Appendix;
- (g) “trade board” means a trade board appointed pursuant to section 21 of the Act.

PART II

Industry SectorsPrescribed industry sectors

- 3(1) The industry sectors listed in column 1 in Table 1 are prescribed as industry sectors for the purposes of the Act.
- (2) Each industry sector is composed of the designated trades listed in column 2 opposite the industry sector listed in column 1 in Table 1.

PART III

Designated Organizations

Designated organizations to select employee representatives

4 For the purposes of clause 4(5)(d) of the Act:

- (a) the employee organization listed in column 2 opposite an industry sector listed in column 1 in Part I of Table 2 is designated as the designated organization responsible for selecting an employee representative for appointment to the commission from that industry sector; and
- (b) the trade boards listed in column 2 and the employee organizations listed in column 3 opposite an industry sector listed in column 1 in Part II of Table 2 are designated as the designated industry group responsible for selecting an employee representative for appointment to the commission from that industry sector.

Designated organizations to select employer representatives

5 For the purposes of clause 4(5)(e) of the Act:

- (a) the employer organization listed in column 2 opposite an industry sector listed in column 1 in Part I of Table 3 is designated as the designated organization responsible for selecting an employer representative for appointment to the commission from that industry sector; and
- (b) the trade boards listed in column 2 and the employer organizations listed in column 3 opposite an industry sector listed in column 1 in Part II of Table 3 are designated as the designated industry group responsible for selecting an employer representative for appointment to the commission from that industry sector.

PART IV

Selecting Representatives

Number of representatives to be selected

6(1) Subject to subsection (2), each designated organization and designated industry group must select one representative for appointment to the commission.

(2) The commission may direct a designated organization or designated industry group to select more than one representative for appointment to the commission.

Selection process

7(1) A designated organization shall select a representative by appointment in accordance with Part V.

(2) A designated industry group shall select a representative by election in accordance with Part VI.

PART V
Selection by Designated Organization

Written proposal for selecting representative

8 Before a designated organization may select a representative for appointment to the commission:

- (a) the designated organization must submit to the commission a written proposal that:
 - (i) complies with these regulations; and
 - (ii) sets out the process that the designated organization must follow in selecting a representative from the industry sector to which the designated organization belongs; and
- (b) the commission must approve the written proposal mentioned in clause (a).

Requirements for written proposal

9(1) A written proposal mentioned in section 8 must include a process to ensure that each organization represented by a designated organization is:

- (a) notified that a representative is to be selected for appointment to the commission;
 - (b) advised of the process that the designated organization must follow in selecting a representative; and
 - (c) advised that any individual associated with that organization is eligible for selection as a representative.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1):
- (a) the trade boards and employee organizations represented by a designated organization for the purposes of selecting an employee representative are listed in columns 3 and 4 opposite the designated organization in Part I of Table 2; and
 - (b) the trade boards and employer organizations represented by a designated organization for the purposes of selecting an employer representative are listed in columns 3 and 4 opposite the designated organization in Part I of Table 3.

Commission approval of written proposal

10(1) On receipt of a written proposal mentioned in section 8, the commission may:

- (a) approve the written proposal, on any terms and conditions that the commission considers appropriate; or
 - (b) reject the written proposal.
- (2) In appointing a representative, a designated organization must comply with any terms and conditions imposed by the commission with respect to the written proposal of the designated organization pursuant to clause (1)(a).

Selection of representative by appointment

11(1) On approval of the written proposal of a designated organization pursuant to section 10, the designated organization shall, in accordance with the written proposal:

- (a) advise the organizations represented by the designated organization that a representative is to be selected for appointment to the commission; and
 - (b) select a representative for appointment to the commission.
- (2) In selecting a representative pursuant to subsection (1), the designated organization shall:
- (a) fairly consider:
 - (i) all individuals who advise the designated organization, in writing, that they are interested in being selected as representative;
 - (ii) all submissions supporting a proposed representative received from organizations that belong to the industry sector from which the representative is to be selected; and
 - (iii) all submissions respecting the suitability of a proposed representative that are received from organizations that belong to the industry sector from which the representative is to be selected; and
 - (b) base its decision on who, in the opinion of the designated organization, is most able:
 - (i) to assist the commission in meeting its obligations to:
 - (A) the public;
 - (B) employers, employees, apprentices, tradespersons and journeypersons; and
 - (C) the Crown; and
 - (ii) to address any concerns unique to the industry sector from which the individual seeks to be selected.

Submission of name of selected representative

12(1) After a designated organization has selected a representative in accordance with this Part, the designated organization shall advise the commission of the name of the representative selected.

(2) On being advised pursuant to subsection (1), the commission shall, in writing, advise:

- (a) the minister of:
 - (i) the name of the representative selected; and
 - (ii) the industry sector to which the representative and designated organization belong; and
- (b) each organization belonging to the industry sector of the name of the representative selected by the designated organization.

PART VI
Selection by Designated Industry Group

Selection by election

13(1) Where a designated industry group is to select a representative for appointment to the commission by way of election, the commission shall:

- (a) set the date for the election; and
 - (b) advise each organization within the designated industry group of the election date.
- (2) In setting the date for the election pursuant to subsection (1), the commission shall allow sufficient time for nominations.
- (3) A person nominating or voting for a representative pursuant to this Part shall consider who, in that person's opinion, is most able:
- (a) to assist the commission in meeting its obligations to:
 - (i) the public;
 - (ii) employers, employees, apprentices, tradespersons and journeypersons; and
 - (iii) the Crown; and
 - (b) to address any concerns unique to the industry sector from which the individual seeks to be selected.

Nominations

14 The commission shall implement a process to solicit nominations from the industry sector for which an election is being held pursuant to this Part.

Election by acclamation

15 A nominee is elected by acclamation where only one nomination is made for a position to be filled by election.

One vote

16 Each organization, other than a trade board, within a designated industry group has one vote in an election to select a representative to the commission from the industry sector to which the organization belongs.

Trade boards

17(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), each member of a trade board has one vote to select a representative to the commission from the industry sector to which the trade board belongs.

(2) Where a trade board is part of more than one industry sector, only those members of the trade board who belong to the industry sector for which a representative is being elected shall vote.

(3) An employee trade board member may only vote for an employee representative to the commission.

(4) An employer trade board member may only vote for an employer representative to the commission.

Conduct of elections

18 In conducting an election pursuant to this Part, the commission shall ensure that:

- (a) all organizations and individuals entitled to vote in the election are notified of the date of the election and of the names of the nominees;
- (b) the organizations and individuals entitled to vote are given an opportunity to vote and only those organizations and individuals entitled to vote cast ballots; and
- (c) all votes are cast by secret ballot.

Election results

19 The nominee with the most votes is selected as the representative to the commission from the industry sector in which the designated industry group participating in the election belongs.

Tie vote

20 In the event of a tie vote, the commission shall conduct a draw among the tied nominees to determine which individual is elected.

Submission of name of elected representative

21 After a designated industry group has selected a representative for appointment to the commission in accordance with this Part, the commission shall, in writing, advise:

- (a) the minister of:
 - (i) the name of the representative selected; and
 - (ii) the industry sector to which the representative and designated industry group belong; and
- (b) each organization belonging to the industry sector of the name of the representative selected by the designated industry group.

Retention of election records

22 The commission shall not destroy the ballots or any other records connected with an election until 60 days have elapsed after the date of the election.

PART VIIGeneral*Expirations of appointments

23 At least six months before a representative's appointment to the commission expires, the commission shall:

- (a) notify the designated organization, or each organization belonging to the designated industry group, that selected the representative of the expiry date for the appointment;
- (b) review the relevant list of designated organizations and designated industry groups as set out in Tables 2 and 3; and
- (c) recommend to the minister any change that may be appropriate to the relevant list.

Vacancies

24(1) Where the office of a representative to the commission becomes vacant before the expiry date of the representative's appointment, the commission may direct, as the case requires:

- (a) the designated organization that selected the representative to fill the vacancy in accordance with the selection process set out in Part V; or
 - (b) the designated industry group that selected the representative to fill the vacancy in accordance with the selection process set out in Part VI.
- (2) The person selected to fill a vacancy pursuant to subsection (1) holds office for the remainder of the term of the person who vacated the office.
- (3) Where a representative to the commission dies or resigns, he or she ceases to be a member of the commission on the date of death or on the date the resignation is received by the commission, as the case may be.

Additional selection procedures

25 The commission may determine, by resolution, any additional procedures that the commission considers necessarily incidental to selecting representatives for appointment to the commission for the purposes of clauses 4(5)(d) and (e) of the Act.
