“PART VIII
[Clause 2(g)]

SASKATCHEWAN LOCAL INSTRUMENT 51-501
ANNUAL INFORMATION FORM AND MANAGEMENT’S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

“Interpretation

1 In this local instrument:

- (a) ‘Annual Information Form’ means an annual information form filed pursuant to Saskatchewan securities law;
- (b) ‘Management’s Discussion and Analysis’ means management’s discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations prepared in accordance with Saskatchewan securities law.

“To whom does this Local Instrument apply

2 Except as otherwise provided in Saskatchewan securities law, this local instrument applies to a reporting issuer, other than a mutual fund, if:

- (a) the issuer’s shareholders’ equity or revenues exceeded $10,000,000 in the financial year of the issuer that precedes the coming into force of this local instrument or in any subsequent financial year; or
- (b) the aggregate market value of the issuer’s outstanding equity securities for which there was a published market was $75,000,000 or more on the last day of:
 - (i) the financial year of the issuer that precedes the coming into force of this local instrument; or
 - (ii) any financial year following the financial year mentioned in subclause (i).

“Calculation of Aggregate Market Value of an Issuer’s Securities

3(1) For the purposes of section 2, the aggregate market value of an issuer’s equity securities on a date is the total of the market value of each class of its equity securities on that date, calculated by multiplying:

- (a) the total number of equity securities of the class outstanding on that date; and
- (b) either:
 - (i) the market price of the class of equity securities on that date on the published market in Canada on which the security is principally traded; or
 - (ii) if there is no published market in Canada on which the security is traded, the published market outside of Canada where the security is principally traded.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1):
- (a) if the published market provides the closing price of securities of the class, the market price of a class of equity securities on a date is an amount equal to:
- (i) the closing price of securities of the class on that date; or
 - (ii) if there was no closing price for the securities of the class on that date, the closing price of the securities of the class on the most recent date there was a closing price of the securities of the class before that date; and
- (b) if the published market does not provide the closing price of the securities of the class but provides only the highest and lowest prices of securities traded on a particular date, the market price of a class of equity securities on a date is an amount equal to:
- (i) the average of the highest and lowest prices for the securities on that date; or
 - (ii) if the highest and lowest prices for the securities are not provided for that date, the average of the highest and lowest prices for the securities on the most recent date the highest and lowest prices for the securities were provided before that date.

“Filing of Annual Information Form

- 4(1) An issuer shall file an Annual Information Form prepared in accordance with Form 44-101F1 for its most recently completed financial year after the coming into force of this local instrument, and for each subsequent financial year, within 140 days after the end of the financial year to which the Annual Information Form relates.
- (2) An issuer is not required to file an Annual Information Form pursuant to subsection (1) for a financial year the ended before the coming into force of this local instrument.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an issuer that has securities registered pursuant to section 12 of the 1934 Act or has a reporting obligation pursuant to section 15(d) of the 1934 Act may file an Annual Information Form in the form of a current annual report on Form 10-K, or Form 20-F, pursuant to the 1934 Act.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an issuer incorporated, organized or continued pursuant to the laws of a foreign jurisdiction that files an Annual Information Form in the form of a current annual report on Form 20-F pursuant to subsection (3) shall file the Annual Information Form within 180 days after the end of each of its completed financial years.
- (5) An issuer that files an Annual Information Form pursuant to subsection (3) shall file with the Annual Information Form an undertaking to the Director to the effect that the issuer will provide to any person or company, on request to the secretary of the issuer:
- (a) one copy of the Annual Information Form of the issuer, together with one copy of any document, or the pertinent pages of any document, incorporated by reference in the Annual Information Form;

- (b) one copy of the comparative financial statements of the issuer for its most recently completed financial year for which financial statements have been filed together with the accompanying report of the auditor and one copy of the most recent interim financial statements of the issuer that have been filed, if any, for any period after the end of its most recently completed financial year; and
 - (c) one copy of the information circular of the issuer with respect to its most recent annual meeting of shareholders that involved the election of directors or one copy of any annual filing prepared instead of that information circular, as appropriate.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), an issuer may require the payment of a reasonable charge to defray the costs of providing the documents mentioned in that subsection if the request is made by a person or company that is not a security holder of the issuer.

“Filing of Annual Management’s Discussion and Analysis Supplement for Canadian GAAP Discussion

5(1) An issuer that has filed an Annual Information Form in a form permitted pursuant to subsection 4(3) shall file, concurrently with its Annual Information Form, a supplement prepared in accordance with subsection (2) if the issuer:

- (a) is incorporated, organized or continued pursuant to the laws of Canada or a jurisdiction; and
 - (b) has based the discussion in the Management’s Discussion and Analysis that forms part of its Annual Information Form on financial statements prepared other than in accordance with Canadian GAAP.
- (2) A supplement required to be filed by an issuer pursuant to subsection (1) must restate, based on financial statements of the issuer prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP, those parts of the annual Management’s Discussion and Analysis forming part of the issuer’s Annual Information Form that:

- (a) are based on financial statements of the issuer prepared in accordance with foreign GAAP; and
- (b) would read differently if they were based on financial statements of the issuer prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP.

“Delivery of Annual Management’s Discussion and Analysis

6 An issuer shall send the Management’s Discussion and Analysis that forms part of its Annual Information Form to all security holders to whom it sends its annual audited financial statements:

- (a) concurrently with its annual audited financial statements to which the Management’s Discussion and Analysis relates; or
- (b) if its annual audited financial statements appear in more than one document, each of which is sent separately to security holders, concurrently with one of the documents containing its annual audited financial statements to which the Management’s Discussion and Analysis relates, so long as the Management’s Discussion and Analysis is sent to security holders within 140 days after the end of the financial year to which the Management’s Discussion and Analysis relates.

“Delivery of Annual Management’s Discussion and Analysis Supplement for Canadian GAAP Discussion

7 An issuer required to file a supplement pursuant to section 5 shall send the supplement to all security holders to whom it sends the Management’s Discussion and Analysis that forms part of its Annual Information Form, concurrently with the Management’s Discussion and Analysis.

“Filing of Interim Management’s Discussion and Analysis

8(1) An issuer that is required to file an Annual Information Form for a financial year shall file in the following financial year, concurrently with its interim financial statements, the Management’s Discussion and Analysis, prepared in accordance with section 9, for its interim financial statements.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) and section 9, an issuer that has securities registered pursuant to section 12 of the 1934 Act or has a reporting obligation pursuant to section 15(d) of the 1934 Act may file the Management’s Discussion and Analysis for its interim financial statements prepared in accordance with paragraph (b) of Item 303 of Regulation S-K of the 1933 Act.

“Content of Interim Management’s Discussion and Analysis

9(1) An issuer’s Management’s Discussion and Analysis for its interim financial statements must include:

- (a) an update of the analysis of the issuer’s financial condition in the annual Management’s Discussion and Analysis that forms part of the issuer’s Annual Information Form for the most recently completed financial year;
 - (b) an analysis of the issuer’s results from operations and cash flows for the most recently completed interim period; and
 - (c) a comparison of the issuer’s financial condition, results of operations and cash flows as at the dates and for the periods set out in subsection (2).
- (2) The dates and periods are:
- (a) for financial condition, the date of the balance sheet for the issuer’s most recently completed financial year and the date of its most recent interim balance sheet;
 - (b) for results of operations:
 - (i) the most recent financial year-to-date period for which an income statement of the issuer is provided and the corresponding year-to-date period of the issuer’s preceding financial year; and
 - (ii) the most recent quarter of the issuer’s financial year, and the corresponding quarter of the preceding financial year; and
 - (c) for cash flows:
 - (i) the most recent financial year-to-date period for which an income statement of the issuer is provided and the corresponding year-to-date period of the issuer’s preceding financial year; and
 - (ii) the most recent quarter of the issuer’s financial year, and the corresponding quarter of the preceding financial year.

(3) An issuer's Management's Discussion and Analysis for its interim financial statements must identify:

- (a) changes in results of operations that are material; and
- (b) any significant elements of the issuer's income or loss from continuing operations that do not arise from, or are not necessarily representative of, the issuer's ongoing business.

(4) An issuer's Management's Discussion and Analysis for its interim financial statements must include a discussion of any seasonal aspects of the issuer's business that have had a material effect on its financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

“Delivery of Interim Management's Discussion and Analysis

10 An issuer shall send the Management's Discussion and Analysis mentioned in subsection 8(1) or (2) to all security holders to whom it sends its interim financial statements to which the Management's Discussion and Analysis relates, concurrently with the interim financial statements.

“Filing of Interim Management's Discussion and Analysis
Supplement for Canadian GAAP Discussion

11(1) An issuer that has filed the Management's Discussion and Analysis for interim financial statements prepared in accordance with paragraph (b) of Item 303 of Regulation S-K of the 1933 Act shall file, concurrently with its interim financial statements, a supplement prepared in accordance with subsection (2) if the issuer:

- (a) is incorporated, organized or continued pursuant to the laws of Canada or a jurisdiction; and
- (b) has based the discussion in the Management's Discussion and Analysis for its interim financial statements on financial statements prepared other than in accordance with Canadian GAAP.

(2) A supplement required to be filed by an issuer pursuant to subsection (1) must restate, based on interim financial statements of the issuer prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP, those parts of the Management's Discussion and Analysis for the issuer's interim financial statements that:

- (a) are based on financial statements of the issuer prepared in accordance with foreign GAAP; and
- (b) would read differently if they were based on financial statements of the issuer prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP.

“Delivery of Interim Management's Discussion and Analysis
Supplement for Canadian GAAP Discussion

12 An issuer required to file a supplement pursuant to section 11 shall send the supplement to all security holders to whom it sends its interim financial statements to which the supplement relates, concurrently with the interim financial statements prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP”.

Registered Producers

“Eligibility to vote and hold office

33(1) Every registered producer is eligible to hold any office on the Board.

(2) Every registered producer is entitled to one vote on any matter to be determined by vote other than the election of directors.

(3) In an election of directors, every registered producer is entitled to:

(a) three producer votes; and

(b) the number of production votes determined pursuant to section 42.

“Meetings of registered producers

34(1) An annual general meeting of registered producers must be held within 150 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Board at a time and place to be determined by the Board.

(2) Special general meetings of registered producers:

(a) may be called by the Board at any time; and

(b) must be called by the Board within 30 days after receiving a written request from 25 or more registered producers.

(3) The Board must give notice of a general meeting of registered producers by sending a notice, by ordinary mail, to each registered producer at least 30 days before the date of the meeting.

(4) The quorum at a general meeting of registered producers is 25 registered producers.

- (5) The Board shall submit to the annual general meeting of registered producers:
- (a) a report on the business of the Board for the preceding fiscal year;
 - (b) an audited financial statement showing the business of the Board for the preceding fiscal year; and
 - (c) the financial plan of the Board's operations for the next fiscal year, approved by the Board pursuant to section 15.
- (6) Registered producers may debate and take a poll at general meetings on any question or resolution related to pork.

“Appointment of auditor

35(1) At each annual general meeting of registered producers, the registered producers shall appoint an auditor to audit the books, records and financial statements of the Board for the current fiscal year.

(2) If the registered producers fail to appoint an auditor pursuant to subsection (1) for a fiscal year, the council shall appoint an auditor to audit the books, records and financial statements of the Board for that fiscal year.

(3) Any person appointed as auditor pursuant to this section must:

- (a) be independent of:
 - (i) the Board; and
 - (ii) the directors and officers of the Board; and
- (b) be a member in good standing of a recognized professional accounting association”.

Part IX, new heading

14 The heading to Part IX is struck out and the following substituted:

“PART IX Elections”.

New section 37

15 Section 37 is repealed and the following substituted:

“Elections held every two years

37 An election of directors is to be held every second year, in the odd-numbered years”.

Section 38 amended

16 Subsection 38(1) is repealed and the following substituted:

“(1) At the annual general meeting of registered producers held in the year between the election of directors, the registered producers shall appoint a chief returning officer for the next scheduled election of directors”.

New sections 39 to 46.317 Sections 39 to 46 are repealed and the following substituted:*“Nominations

39(1) At least eight weeks before an annual general meeting of registered producers in the odd-numbered years, the Board shall, for the purpose of the election of directors:

- (a) fix the date by which nomination papers must be in the hands of the chief returning officer; and
 - (b) send to each registered producer, by ordinary mail:
 - (i) a list of the names of the current directors;
 - (ii) a request for nominations for the office of director; and
 - (iii) a notice respecting the date by which nomination papers must be in the hands of the chief returning officer.
- (2) Every nomination for director must be in writing, in the form prescribed by the Board and signed by two registered producers.
- (3) The nomination papers must be in the hands of the chief returning officer by the date fixed by the Board pursuant to clause (1)(a).
- (4) Every person nominated pursuant to this section stands for election by both producer vote and production vote.

“Conduct of elections

40(1) If not more than the required number of candidates is nominated for the office of director, the chief returning officer shall declare those candidates elected by acclamation in accordance with section 45.

- (2) If more than the required number of candidates is nominated, the Board shall:
- (a) fix the date by which and the place to which a ballot and a certificate of eligibility to vote are to be returned; and
 - (b) at least 21 days before the date fixed pursuant to clause (a), send to each registered producer, by ordinary mail:
 - (i) one ballot;
 - (ii) a certificate of eligibility to vote;
 - (iii) a plain envelope; and
 - (iv) a notice of the date by which and the place to which, pursuant to clause (a), the ballot and certificate of eligibility to vote are to be returned.
- (3) Voting is to be by ballot, and the ballot, sealed in the plain envelope provided, is to be returned to the chief returning officer either in person or by mail, together with the certificate of eligibility to vote signed by the registered producer casting the ballot.
- (4) Any ballot not returned to the chief returning officer by the date fixed pursuant to clause (2)(a) is disqualified.

“Casting producer votes

41(1) Every registered producer is entitled to vote for three candidates by producer vote.

(2) A ballot is disqualified, and the chief returning officer shall not count the producer votes or the production votes cast by that ballot, if the ballot is marked with:

- (a) more than three producer votes; or
- (b) more than one producer vote for any one candidate.

“Casting production votes

42(1) A registered producer is entitled to one production vote for each hog that the registered producer marketed or slaughtered in the Board's previous fiscal year, as determined by the Board based on the check-offs paid by the registered producer.

(2) The Board shall indicate on the ballot sent to each registered producer the number of production votes to which the registered producer is entitled.

(3) A registered producer is entitled to cast his or her production votes for one or more candidates in any manner that the registered producer wishes.

(4) A ballot is disqualified, and the chief returning officer shall not count the producer votes or the production votes cast by that ballot, if the ballot is marked with more production votes than the registered producer is entitled to, as determined by the Board pursuant to this section.

(5) Where a registered producer objects to the number of production votes to which he or she is entitled, as indicated on the ballot, the registered producer may request that the Board reconsider its determination.

(6) Any request made pursuant to subsection (5) must be made at least seven days before the date fixed pursuant to clause 40(2)(a) for the return of ballots.

(7) On receipt of a request made in accordance with subsection (6), the Board shall with all due dispatch:

- (a) reconsider the determination objected to and confirm or vary the determination; and
- (b) notify the registered producer making the objection and the chief returning officer of the Board's decision.

(8) A decision of the Board pursuant to subsection (7) is final, and there is no right of appeal from that decision.

“Election by production votes

43(1) Promptly after the date fixed pursuant to clause 40(2)(a) for the return of ballots, the chief returning officer shall count the votes cast in the election.

(2) Production votes are to be counted before producer votes.

(3) The three candidates receiving the most production votes are elected as directors for the purposes of clause 25(2)(b).

(4) A tie between candidates based on production votes is to be decided in favour of the candidate with the most producer votes.

(5) Neither the chief returning officer nor any person assisting the chief returning officer in counting production votes shall disclose the number of production votes cast in favour of any candidate.

“Election by producer votes

44(1) After determining the directors elected by production vote pursuant to section 43, the chief returning officer shall remove the names of the candidates elected by production vote from the list of candidates to be elected by producer vote pursuant to this section.

(2) Of the candidates remaining on the list of candidates to be elected by producer vote, the three candidates receiving the most producer votes are elected as directors for the purposes of clause 25(2)(a).

(3) A tie between candidates based on producer votes is to be decided in favour of the candidate with the most production votes.

“Election results

45 The chief returning officer shall announce the names of the persons elected as directors at the first annual general meeting of registered producers after the election, immediately after the minutes of the previous meeting have been dealt with.

“Tie votes

46(1) If a tie occurs between candidates notwithstanding subsection 43(4) or 44(3), the successful candidate is to be determined by a producer vote conducted at the annual general meeting of registered producers.

(2) Voting pursuant to subsection (1) is to be by secret ballot.

(3) Only registered producers who are in attendance at the annual general meeting are entitled to vote pursuant to subsection (1), and each of those registered producers is entitled to one vote for that purpose.

(4) The chief returning officer shall count the votes cast pursuant to subsection (1) and announce the winner of the tie vote before moving on to any further business at the annual general meeting.

“Retention of ballots

46.1 The chief returning officer shall retain all ballots in his or her possession and shall not destroy any ballot or other record connected with an election of directors until 90 days have elapsed after the annual general meeting of registered producers at which the chief returning officer announced the results of the election.

“Challenge to election results

46.2(1) Any registered producer may challenge the results of an election of directors, as announced by the chief returning officer pursuant to section 45 or subsection 46(4), by submitting a written objection to the council.

(2) A written objection submitted to the council pursuant to subsection (1) must:

(a) set out the grounds for the objection; and

(b) be received by the council within 90 days after the annual general meeting of registered producers at which the chief returning officer announced the results of the election.

(3) Where the council receives a written objection in accordance with this section and is satisfied that the objection is neither frivolous nor vexatious, the council may appoint a vote recount officer to conduct a recount of the votes cast in the election.

(4) Where the council appoints a vote recount officer pursuant to subsection (3), the results of the election as announced by the vote recount officer are final.

“Deemed notice of election

46.3 A registered producer is conclusively deemed to have received any notice, nomination paper or ballot that is sent, by ordinary mail, to the registered producer at his or her last address registered with the Board, and the failure of any person to receive a notice, nomination paper or ballot does not invalidate the election”.

Sections 48 and 49 repealed

18 Sections 48 and 49 are repealed.

New section 49.1

19 The following section is added before section 50:

“Transitional - change in fiscal year

49.1(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations:

- (a) the annual general meeting of registered producers to be held at the end of the fiscal year of the Board ending on December 31, 2000 must be held by May 15, 2001;
 - (b) an election of directors is to be conducted and the results of the election announced by the chief returning officer at the annual general meeting mentioned in clause (a); and
 - (c) the directors elected in accordance with clause (b) hold office until the election of new directors is announced at the annual general meeting of registered producers held in 2003.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of these regulations, for the fiscal year of the Board commencing on January 1, 2001 and ending on July 31, 2001, there is to be no election of directors at the annual general meeting of registered producers held at the end of that fiscal year, notwithstanding that it is an odd-numbered year.
- (3) The members of the board of directors who hold office on the day before the day on which The Pork Industry Development Plan Amendment Regulations, 2001 come into force continue to hold office until a new board of directors is announced at the annual general meeting mentioned in clause (1)(a)”.
