SASKATCHEWAN REGULATIONS 56/2004*The Prescription Drugs Act*

Section 9

Order in Council 484/2004, dated June 29, 2004

(Filed June 30, 2004)

Title

1 These regulations may be cited as The Prescription Drugs Amendment Regulations, 2004 (No. 2).

R.R.S. c.P-23 Reg 3 amended

2 The Prescription Drugs Regulations, 1993 are amended in the manner set forth in these regulations.

Section 2 amended

3 Subsection 2(1) is amended:(a) by repealing clause (g) and substituting the following:

“(g) ‘interchangeable group’ means a group of drugs that:

(i) are interchangeable pharmaceutical products as defined in section 2 of The Pharmacy Act, 1996; and

(ii) are identified in the formulary as being interchangeable with each other”; and

(b) by adding the following clause before clause (i):

“(h.1) ‘maximum allowable cost group’ means a group of drugs designated as a maximum allowable cost group by the minister pursuant to subsection 3.2(1);

“(h.2) ‘maximum allowable cost per unit’ means the maximum allowable cost per unit designated by the minister pursuant to subsection 3.2(2) for drugs in a maximum allowable cost group”.

New section 3.2

4 The following section is added after section 3.1:“Maximum allowable cost groups

3.2(1) The minister may, from time to time, in the formulary designate groups of drugs as maximum allowable cost groups if, on the advice of persons with relevant expert knowledge, the minister is satisfied that each of the drugs in the group is of similar therapeutic effect.

(2) The minister shall, in the formulary, designate a maximum allowable cost per unit for drugs in a maximum allowable cost group designated pursuant to subsection (1)”.

New section 4

5 Section 4 is repealed and the following substituted:“Recognized drug price calculation

4(1) If a drug dispensed is not part of an interchangeable group or a maximum allowable cost group, the recognized drug price for the drug dispensed is the amount RDP calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{RDP} = (\text{N} \times \text{AP}) + \text{M} + \text{ADF}$$

where:

N is the number of units of the drug dispensed;

AP is the actual price per unit charged by the person operating the participating pharmacy for the brand of drug dispensed, to a maximum of the price per unit indicated for that drug in the formulary;

M is the maximum mark-up that a person operating a participating pharmacy may charge, in accordance with an agreement mentioned in section 5 of the Act, on the number of units of the brand of drug dispensed; and

ADF is the actual dispensing fee charged by the person operating the participating pharmacy for the brand of drug dispensed, to a maximum of the maximum dispensing fee that may be charged in accordance with an agreement mentioned in section 5 of the Act.

(2) If a drug dispensed is part of an interchangeable group and is not part of a maximum allowable cost group, the recognized drug price for the drug dispensed is the amount RDP calculated in accordance with the following formula:

where:

N is the number of units of the drug dispensed;

APB is the actual price per unit charged by the person operating the participating pharmacy for the brand of drug dispensed, to a maximum of the price per unit for the lowest priced brand of drug in the same interchangeable group as the drug dispensed;

MIC is the maximum mark-up that could be charged by a person operating a participating pharmacy, in accordance with an agreement mentioned in section 5 of the Act, if, rather than dispensing the brand of drug dispensed, the person operating the pharmacy had dispensed the lowest priced brand of drug in the same interchangeable group as the drug prescribed in the same number of units as the drug prescribed; and

ADF is the actual dispensing fee charged by the person operating the participating pharmacy, for the brand of drug dispensed, to a maximum of the maximum dispensing fee that may be charged in accordance with an agreement mentioned in section 5 of the Act.

(3) If a drug dispensed is part of a maximum allowable cost group, the recognized drug price for the drug dispensed is the amount RDP calculated in accordance with the following formula:

where:

N is the number of units of the drug dispensed;

APC is the actual price per unit charged by the person operating the participating pharmacy for the brand of drug dispensed, to a maximum determined in accordance with subsection (4);

MMAC is the maximum mark-up that could be charged by a person operating a participating pharmacy, in accordance with an agreement mentioned in section 5 of the Act, if, rather than dispensing the brand of drug dispensed, the person operating the pharmacy had dispensed, in a quantity having the same therapeutic effect as the number of units of the drug prescribed, a drug that did not exceed the maximum allowable cost per unit for the maximum allowable cost group to which the drug prescribed belongs; and

ADF is the actual dispensing fee charged by the person operating the participating pharmacy, for the brand of drug dispensed, to a maximum of the maximum dispensing fee that may be charged in accordance with an agreement mentioned in section 5 of the Act.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the maximum value of APC is the lowest of the following values, as of the date on which the drug was dispensed:

- (a) the maximum allowable cost per unit for drugs in the maximum allowable cost group to which the drug dispensed belongs;
- (b) the maximum price per unit indicated in the formulary for the drug dispensed;
- (c) if the drug dispensed is also a member of an interchangeable group, the maximum price per unit for the lowest priced brand of drug in the interchangeable group to which the drug dispensed belongs”.

Coming into force

6(1) Subject to subsection (2), these regulations come into force on July 1, 2004.

(2) If these regulations are filed with the Registrar of Regulations after July 1, 2004, these regulations come into force on the day on which these regulations are filed with the Registrar of Regulations but are retroactive and are deemed to have been in force on and from July 1, 2004.
