R.R.S. c.A-35 Reg 4, section 27 amended

2 Section 27 of The Automobile Accident Insurance (General) Regulations, 2002 is amended:

(a) by adding the following subsection after subsection (2):

“(2.1) Notwithstanding clause (2)(a), if a driver is involved in a motor vehicle accident that is determined to be a chargeable incident against the driver, there is more than one chargeable incident arising out of the same motor vehicle accident and, at the time of the motor vehicle accident, the driver has a safety rating of zero or greater, the insurer shall only subtract the assigned points from the driver’s safety rating for the first chargeable incident registered with the insured arising out of that motor vehicle accident”; and

(b) by adding the following subsections after subsection (6):

“(6.1) Notwithstanding subsection (6), if a driver is involved in a motor vehicle accident that is determined to be a chargeable incident against the driver and there is more than one chargeable incident arising out of the same motor vehicle accident, the driver shall only pay a surcharge for the first chargeable incident that is registered with the insured arising out of that motor vehicle accident in the amount set out in Table 2.

(6.2) Notwithstanding subsection (6.1), if one of the chargeable incidents arising out of a motor vehicle accident is a conviction for contravening the Criminal Code and the contravention is one identified in paragraph 2.3 of Appendix B:

(a) the driver shall pay a surcharge based on both of the following:

(i) the conviction for contravening the Criminal Code; and

(ii) the first chargeable incident that is not a conviction for contravening the Criminal Code and that is registered with the insured arising out of that motor vehicle accident; and

(b) the amount of the surcharge is the total of the amounts set out in Table 2 respecting the conviction and the first chargeable incident mentioned in clause (a)”.
